

One Fourth Of Berlin Razed; Population To Be Evacuated

By JOHN H. COLBURN
Stockholm, Nov. 26 (AP)—The Stockholm newspaper Tidningar said today it had learned that German officials had admitted a fourth of Berlin was destroyed in the RAF's concentrated attacks Monday and Tuesday nights.

The officials refused to specify any wrecked areas, the newspaper said, but two Swedish eyewitnesses, one an engineer and the other a military explosives expert, said damage was largely limited to the city's center.

No Bread, Milk

Censored reports received over crippled communication lines from neutral correspondents and accounts from eyewitnesses gave this highlight picture of conditions in Berlin:

No bread or milk for sale Thursday in shops; crowds waiting fruitlessly in front of shops for supplies; thousands of workers laboring night and day to clear the streets and get traffic in operation; many homeless people sleeping at night in the debris-littered streets; firemen so busy they have been unable to dig into ruined air raid shelters for bodies.

By C. ADWIN HILL
London, Nov. 26 (AP)—American heavy bombers struck into northwest Germany today, taking up in daylight the massive aerial offensive against the Nazis after the RAF gave Berlin its fourth straight night of bombing and heavily attacked Frankfurt-am-Main.

The U. S. announcement did not specify immediately the target of the bombers and their fighter escort, but the Bremen radio went off the air suggesting that much-battered port as an objective.

The Littlestown State Bank reports the largest club in its history with a total of $33,000 ready for its depositors about December 1. There were 687 members of the club. Last year the bank distributed $29,875.

The Littlestown National Christmas club reports $25,000 will be mailed to about 400 club members there on December 1.

To Mail Checks Soon

The Farmers Bank of McSherrystown reached a new high with its Christmas club this year. Four hundred and seventy depositors will receive checks totaling $21,000 next week. The club total last year was $19,500.

The Farmers and Merchants bank of New Oxford reports that 200 depositors saved a total of $12,200 during the last year. Their checks will be mailed next Wednesday.

Seventy-five club members at the First National bank of Fairfield will divide a total of $5,500 next week.

Club members at the Biglerville National bank will be mailed checks next Tuesday for $5,400. There are 110 accounts in the club.

Plan '44 Clubs

At the Bendersville National it was announced that checks amounting to between $1,700 and $1,750 will be mailed December 1 to 40 club members.

Clubs operated by the York Springs National bank and the Arendtsville National bank both accumulated about $1,200, annual reports showed. The Arendtsville bank will mail its checks during the second week of December. At York Springs they will be mailed December 1.

The two banks at East Berlin and the Abbottstown State bank did not conduct clubs during the last year and had not made plans for clubs in 1944.

All of the banks that operated clubs in 1943 said they are continuing club plans in 1944. Some reported that bond and stamp sales caused reductions in Christmas saving club balances but other banks could notice no difference. Absence of interest on the Christmas accounts also failed to make any great difference in the clubs' popularity.

Troop 77 Plans Week-End Camp

Smith, chief observer, awarded the pins while Stanton D. House, district director, thanked the group for their work while the post was open from September, 1942, to July 21, 1943.

The observers gave more than 4,000 hours of service during the period.

They faced a machine gun in groups of five. The Germans then dynamited the quarry, burying the bodies under tons of rock.

BIRCHER-REISS NUPTIALS ARE ANNOUNCED HERE

Church Crowded On Thanksgiving Day

More than 300 worshippers filled the Presbyterian church to capacity Thursday morning for the annual union Thanksgiving service.

"The Joy of the Grateful Heart" was the theme of the sermon delivered by the Rev. Robert M. Hunt, the Presbyterian pastor. The worship service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putman, pastor of Christ Lutheran church and president of the Gettysburg Ministerium. The Thanksgiving prayer was offered by the Rev. Charles K. Gilson, new pastor of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Henry M. Scharf was the soloist. She sang "Netherlands Folk Song."

The offering, which was turned over to the Gettysburg Civic Nursing association, amounted to $53.49, the largest sum received at a Thanksgiving service in a number of years.

John Edwin Bircher, Philadelphia, 89-year-old father of Richard Bircher, was a special guest at the dinner. His son, Richard, and the latter's son, Jack, and Irene Bircher, five-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bircher, represented three younger generations of the Bircher family.

Bircher Speaks

The 38 persons in attendance included the airport personnel, their wives, sweethearts, mothers and other special guests.

Mr. Bircher addressed the group as follows:

"Several times during the last few days I have heard expressions to the effect that we have little to be thankful for this Thanksgiving. I don't agree that this is so. I am certain that should I call on you to state what you have to be thankful for, each one of you would be able to give me several reasons why you are thankful today.

Grateful For Accomplishments

"For myself, I feel that I would be remiss in my duty to God and to you should I fail to express my gratitude for many blessings that have been bestowed upon me. I only pray that I may be worthy of them.

"I am deeply grateful for the loyal employees I have had and still have. I do not refer only to those who have been with me for five years—10 or 15, but also to those who started with us when we came to Gettysburg and to those who joined us when we started in the work in which we are presently engaged. I refer to the Army Air Corps, to our indoctrination course and to those others, who, though they have but recently become associated with us nevertheless are making a contribution to our success—and therefore to the war effort.

"And I am thankful that our success is so great. That our success is measured by accomplishment that records every session fully completed—over 10,000 hours completely free

By DON WHITEHEAD

With the Fifth Army at Fornelli, Italy, Nov. 24 (Delayed) (AP)—The "Battle of the House" was one of those savage, isolated fights which characterize operations along the Germans' touted winterline.

Twenty-four Germans caught 12 Americans in a three-story farmhouse. After three

REDS LAUNCH NEW CAMPAIGN AGAINST NAZIS

(This column, conducted as a regular feature by DeWitt Mackenzie, is written today in his absence by J. M. Roberts, Jr.)

The Germans apparently have failed in what appears to have been a dual purpose counter-offensive west of Kiev, and new Russian activity north of Gomel may be the beginning of a long-expected and decisive campaign on the central front.

Russian announcement of a three-day old offensive along a 40-mile front between Gomel and Mogilev makes it appear the strenuous German effort in the Ukraine was intended as much to delay and impede action farther north as it was to aid her dangerously-threatened forces west of the Dnieper bend.

Winter Offensive

But the Russians struck anyway, even while they were resuming their westward march around Zhitomir, in what appears very much like the start of a great winter offensive.

The advancing season has been watched carefully ever since Smolensk, great key to the whole central region, was recaptured exactly two months ago. There have been reports of great winter armories, rested and refurbished since they last took advantage of snow and ice to send Hitler reeling, massing along the north central front awaiting the season for their best work. The push now under way could very easily be the prelude to that great fight.

The new offensive area last night was roughly 60 miles north of Gomel, which Berlin radio announced was being evacuated and only six miles east of the upper Dnieper where the Germans have established their line across the route to Minsk—the old Napoleon road of retreat. The Russians were only 17 miles from the Leningrad-Odessa railroad, and near the important rail junction of Kalinkovichi.

Snow And Freezing

This area is some 250 miles from East Prussia, Germany's general operations base.

If this is indeed the beginning of a winter offensive, a great Russian eruption can be expected soon in the Veliki Luki and Nevel area, where Stalin's armies now stand nearest the Latvian border.

Already there has been snow and freezing as far south as the Ukraine battle areas. December will bring to the north central front the type of weather to which Russia's armies appear best suited, and which twice has brought Adolf up screaming alibis.

It was along this front that the Germans entered in 1941, and it could well be here that they will get out early in 1944, if they can, leaving great armies trapped behind them around Leningrad.

The Russians have few confidants, and their strategy today is not always a dependable guide for tomorrow. But the heart of Germany's Russian army lies in East Prussia more than in Rumania, and it is the German army which must be destroyed before Russia is safe. Decision in the German-Russian war was reached before Moscow two years ago, and appears likely to be executed in the next few months by Red armies which have been massed in the Gomel-Smolensk-Rzhev-Veliki Luki area.

Miss Caroline Rex and Miss Virginia Troxell, of the Biglerville high school teaching staff, are spending the Thanksgiving recess with Miss Rex's parents at Allentown.

The Thank Offering service of the Women's Missionary society of St. Paul's Lutheran church will be held Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the church. The Rev. Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, of Gettysburg, will be the speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Yost and family, of Biglerville, are spending the Thanksgiving season in Myers town with Mrs. Yost's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yingst.

Miss Jean Thomas and Miss Marian Thomas, of Biglerville, were business visitors in Baltimore today.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reed and Mrs. Stanton Thomas, of Biglerville, were visitors in Carlisle Wednesday.

Miss Lois Sineall, of Harrisburg, is spending several days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Lott, of Gardners R. D.

The Reichsteine lived for a number of years in Green Springs. Following their removal to Lititz, Samuel Reichsteine worked in the Bedford Shoe plant there before entering the service.

Surviving the young man are his parents, Ulysses and Viola Becker Reichsteine and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Richard Crabb, New Oxford R. D. 1; Mrs. Raymond Matthews, Lititz; Mrs. Mary Jane Sammick, North Carolina; Doris, Annabelle, Helen and Robert Reichsteine, at home.

DIPLOMATS DROP FIRST TILT TO BUCKNELL 21-13

BY JACK HAND
New York, Nov. 26 (AP)—Football's second wartime season closes in appropriate martial surroundings tomorrow with the servicemen privileged to enjoy two of the year's best bets almost without civilian attendance.

When the Army and Navy meet for the eastern championship, the only folks present will be military academy cadets and the gentry living within 10 miles of West Point.

The sailors of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station will be the only spectators when the Notre Dame Irishmen try to hurdle their tenth and final obstacle to a national title.

Penn Crowd Tops
There wasn't any ban on crowds Thanksgiving Day when Philadelphia turned out 60,000 to watch Penn outscore Cornell, 20-14. Thirty-two thousand watched Texas qualify for a Cotton Bowl bid and the southwest crown by whipping Texas Aggies, 27-13. The losers earned an Orange Bowl date with L.S.U.

When Colgate stopped Brown, 21-14, on a blocked punt that bounded 34 yards for a touchdown, 10,000 were present. A like number saw Bucknell ruin Franklin and Marshall's perfect season, 21-13. Tulsa drew 15,000 as the Hurricane barbecued the Arkansas Razorbacks, 61-0.

Other noteworthy holiday returns showed South Carolina knocking Wake Forest out of post season consideration, 13-2; Maryland stopping V.M.I., 21-14; North Carolina Pre-Flight slapping North Carolina State, 22-7; Fort Riley winning over Kansas, 22-7; St. Mary's defeating Utah, 34-0, and Oklahoma Aggies nosing out Denver, 7-6.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Nov. 26 (AP)—Ready for the week of the big carcasse?

Next week, for probably the first time on record, the major and minor baseball leagues will hold their annual meetings in one hotel . . . and when everyone figures the club owners are seriously discussing trades and important business, the most frequently heard words will be: "Remember that game back in . . ." First bit of gossip: Jack Corbett, former owner of the Syracuse, New York, club, stands a good chance of being elected president of the Pacific Coast League, succeeding Will (Two Gun) Tuttle. . . . From horse opera to dark horse, eh?

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Joe Miller, Lewistown (Idaho) Tribune: "Perhaps coast football has been in the doldrums this fall, but at least another 'washed up' University of Chicago coach has come out with one of the most potent alphabet soup combinations seen in the west. In 1940 it was Clark Shaughnessy and his Stanford 'T' formation. This year it's Amos Alonzo Stagg and his 'A-A' formation at Pacific, and brother this combination has dealt out plenty of football 'ack-ack' to enemy pigskin aerial bombers."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Major league baseball clubs had 530 players on their reserve lists and 387 on their national defense list when Secretary Leslie O'Connor made his latest compilation and a half dozen or more have switched to the service side since then. . . . The Tigers had only 27 players available and 44 unavailable. . . . Johnny Jaffurs, Penn State's star guard, will go into the Army when his college career ends. . . . If any of the indoor track meets listed for Madison Square Garden this winter should fold up, Ned Irish is ready to toss in another basketball doubleheader. . . . The National Collegiate AA is taking a poll to decide whether to continue its basketball title tournament this season. . . . The "Woman Bowler" estimates that girls who have tried pin-setting this fall have reduced an average of 15 pounds. . . . Now we look for a considerable decrease in feminine bowling and an increase in pin-setting.

ALL-AROUND GUY

Bob O'Hara, Princeton guard who scored the Tigers' only touchdown against Yale, is attending his fourth university in four years. . . . After graduating from a Scranton, Pa., high school, Bob went to Georgetown to study medicine. The next year he switched to economics and American U. Then he got married, picked law for a career and transferred to Pennsylvania. There he enlisted in a marine V-12 group and was ordered to Princeton. . . . Gosh, think of how many football teams he'll have to cheer for when he becomes an old grad.

SERVICE DEPT.

Maybe THE Army-Navy game will be played tomorrow, but the Army and the Navy will have another little tussle in the "Lily Bowl" game in Bermuda, January 2. . . . The teams already have started practice under Navy Lieut. Norman (Nate) Ross, former Bucknell gridder and Gloucester, Massachusetts, coach, and Army Lieut. Robert Murphy, formerly of Georgia Tech, who led the soldiers to a 19-18 victory last year. . . . Lieut. (jg) Len Estmon, sparkplug of the Del Monte, California, Navy Pre-Flight grid team, is due for a transfer soon to the Norman, Oklahoma, Naval Air Station. So is Ensign Joe Vavra, former star lineman at Syracuse. . . . Coach of the outfit, Lieut. Al Humphreys, will go to the Flight Prep School at St. Olaf's College, Minnesota.

Larry Kelley, Yale's great end of a few years ago, played softball for the Lawrence Engineering team of Linden, New Jersey, last summer and in the Union county championships Larry up and fanned six times running in two playoff games. . . . Well, what have the Caseys got that the Kelleys haven't?

COACHES AND PRINCIPALS TO GET EXTRA GAS

Harrisburg, Nov. 26 (AP)—War-time transportation difficulties which have hindered Pennsylvania high school athletics were eased somewhat today with liberalization of gasoline allowances for principals, coaches and others whose duties require them to attend games.

The Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association announced the Washington Office of Price Administration has upheld a ruling of the Harrisburg district chief rationing attorney that school authorities are entitled to preferred or "C" gasoline rationing. They previously received "B" cards.

After reversal of the Harrisburg opinion by the OPA New York regional office, PIAA advised member schools, the matter was taken to Washington with this decision coming from Chief Counsel W. Robert Koerner:

Preferred Rationing
Athletic coaches, instructors or school officials who are employees of a government agency such as a public school or state university may be eligible for preferred mileage only if the (rationing) board finds that it is the official duty of such employees, and compensation is paid for such services or travel expenses incurred in connection therewith, to attend regular scheduled athletic contests and that travel for the performance of such official duties is necessary."

"This ruling," said PIAA Executive Secretary Edmund Wicht, means that principals, coaches, physical directors or other high school officials are entitled to preferred rationing if their duties require them to attend games under the conditions stated."

Phils Head And Fitzsimmons Meet

Philadelphia, Nov. 26 (AP)—With Herb Pennock, still undecided about accepting an offer to become general manager of the Phillies, Bob Carpenter, the club's new president, meets his field manager for the first time today.

Baseball-wise Freddy Fitzsimmons and Carpenter, 28, youngest club head in the major leagues, will discuss "routine matters," the club office announces.

Meanwhile, Carpenter confirmed that Pennock, manager of the Boston Red Sox farm system, is the man he wants as general manager.

Pennock, former American league pitching ace, said he has not yet decided whether to accept, but added, "I am extremely flattered by the offer." Tom Yawkey, Red Sox owner, has given Pennock permission to accept the new post if he desires.

Nelson Has Wide Lead In Golf Play

Portland, Ore., Nov. 26 (AP)—Byron Nelson took a 16-stroke lead and virtually clinched the $5,000 War Relief Golf Derby by scoring a 70 while Harold (Jug) McSpaden of Philadelphia carded 73 at the Waverly country club course yesterday.

The 72 holes remaining in their contest will be played in matches at Sacramento and San Francisco.

SERVICE TILT WILL FEATURE AIR ASSAULT

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

West Point, N. Y., Nov. 26 (AP)—

Victory through the air is the newest theme of the military minded so it is no surprise that the experts dissecting tomorrow's Army-Navy football game in advance are arguing along the same lines.

Tiny Hal Hamborg, Navy's pigskin mortar, has tossed 79 aerials in the Middies' eight games this fall and 34 of them have reached their mark for 503 yards. In most of the debates he is conceded to be the best passer in tomorrow's semi-final clash.

But the Army's statistics are the more imposing. With Glenn Davis and Tom Lombardo doing the flinging, the Cadets tried the air lanes 122 times in their nine games and 62 were completed for 914 yards. 10,000 at Game

That's an average of 101.6 yards a game through the air while Hamborg, who does virtually all the Navy's first-string tossing, has a mean of 64 yards a game.

The experts, however, figure that Army's previous weakness against the overhead attack will crop up once more as the Middies try for their nineteenth victory in the forty-fourth game of the series. Army has won 22 of the games in the past and three have been tied.

Tomorrow's game, involving two of the east's best clubs, will be played in the comparative secrecy of 10,000 fans who qualified under the governmental order that admission be restricted to residents in a 10-mile radius.

It will, however, have one of the largest listening audiences, being radioed to all parts of the world for the entertainment of Uncle Sam's fighting nephews.

Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri all were represented in the Confederate Congress although none succeeded from the Union during the War Between the States.

The Adams County Supervisors' and Auditor's Convention will be held in COURT HOUSE GETTYSBURG Thurs., Dec. 9, 1943 A. M.

N. B.—This date was selected in order that the State Auditor's examination of the county books for 1942 will be of special importance because of fact there are so many new laws and regulations that need to be explained.

AGGIES, TIGERS IN ORANGE BOWL

Miami, Fla., Nov. 26 (AP)—The Orange Bowl is coming up this time with something new—a re-match of a regular season football game between the Texas Aggies and Louisiana State university.

Texas A. and M. whipped L.S.U., 28 to 13, when they met October 9, and in the game touchdown-minded Orange Bowl sponsors saw possibilities of a repeat performance on New Year's day which could give the Miami crowd of 30-odd thousand its money's worth.

Ebensburg gained the Western title without even appearing on the gridiron. Huntingdon's 48-0 triumph over Mt. Union gave Ebensburg a final standing of 220 points, five more than second-place Windber.

While Bethlehem concentrated on stopping Billy Kline, Allentown's speedy quarterback and field general, the Canaries managed to shake Halfback Bill Flemish loose on two touchdown runs in the second period, one for 62 yards and the other for 10.

Officially, Ebensburg will not be crowned champion until the Western conference meets on Monday, while Allentown will have to wait until the Big 15 meeting December 11 at Harrisburg.

In the Wyoming Valley conference Wilkes-Barre Meyers was in first place with a 603 percentage, followed by second place Berwick with 554.

THREE CLINCH LEAGUE TITLES

Philadelphia, Nov. 26 (AP)—Unbeaten Allentown high holds the Big 15 crown today and in the Western conference Ebensburg's rule supreme following yesterday's decided schoolboy clashes.

Before 20,000 spectators, Allentown dropped Bethlehem, 13-6, to finish with a conference record of six victories and no defeats.

Ebensburg gained the Western title without even appearing on the gridiron. Huntingdon's 48-0 triumph over Mt. Union gave Ebensburg a final standing of 220 points, five more than second-place Windber.

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest

PRIDE OF SERVICE

Just take it from the sailor: It's the Navy that is tough.
They'll hand it to the Axis, till the
Axis cries enough!
The Navy has tradition, from the shoulders trimmed with gold
To the youngest tar among them, doing service in the hold!
Stop the first one that you come to who has leave ashore to be
And that sailor boy will tell you:
Wards are won upon the sea!

But the lad who packs a rifle has a different song to sing.
He will tell you that the Army in the war is everything.
It's the soldier in the foxhole, and the soldier standing guard.
And the boys in all the branches who are trained to fighting hard!

It's the lads who fight in khaki and get stripes upon their sleeves.
It's the Army that will win it! every one of them believes!

So it is throughout the service.
Ask the boys who wear the wings
And they'll tell you it's the Air Corps that is really doing things.
But some chap adorned with ribbons who has learned what battle means
Will insist on giving credit to the "first on hand" Marines.
And I think that's how it should be.
I would want that boy of mine
To believe his branch of service is the finest of the line.

Today's Talk

By George Matthew Adams

SUFFICIENT UNTO THE DAY
Lord Rowton once asked Lord Beaconsfield this question: "What is the most remarkable, the most self-sustained and powerful sentence you know?" The answer was: "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof!"

It is well for us all to keep this answer well in mind. Stephen Crane and three companions were once wrecked outside the shores of eastern Florida. In Crane's brief book,
"The Open Boat," the story is told.
The most pregnant sentence in that story, to me, was this one: "None knew the color of the sky."

Tomorrow is a sealed book. None has ever revealed its secrets. But today is our one golden opportunity, our one best bet to do our best.
Why then worry about tomorrow—or any tomorrow? Tomorrow will take care of itself when it comes,
if you take care of today.

The great scope of Walt Whitman's free and airy poetry is largely apprised from his own statement as applied to himself, when he stated:
"I am immense!" Thus it was that he looked out upon large areas, into big space, and touched all human emotion. He could say: "Sufficient unto the day is the beauty thereof!"

Our individual lives are an inseparable part of the loom of life. When we weave our individual life, we touch all efforts that makeup the complete pattern. It is impossible, for example, to limit the influence that we radiate, whether in word or through act. The responsibility for a better world is ours individually, as well as humanity as a whole. Therefore each day has a touch of gold within its performance.

Sufficient unto the day is the opportunity thereof. Courage is acceptance. Flaubert said of Shakespeare:
"He was not a man but a continent; there were great men in him, whole crowds, countries." How easy, therefore, to appraise the importance that Shakespeare must have placed upon the opportunity of each single day.

Can any of us afford to place a small price-tag upon any of our days?

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Self-Examination."

SENATORS SHY FROM ENTERING '44 CAMPAIGN

By JACK BELL

Washington, Nov. 26 (AP)—For the first time in years the Senate, historical stamping ground for presidential candidates, may have no formal entries next year for either major party nomination.

Although the clerk calls the names of a dozen potential dark horses every time he lists quorum, circumstances thus far have kept any senator from publicly declaring that he will be a presidential candidate and may combine to keep all of them in the background.

The democrats, of course, aren't likely to announce anything until they find out what President Roosevelt is going to do about a fourth term, a decision few of them think will be made finally until a few days before the 1944 convention.

Some Chuckle

Some of the Republicans listed as possible candidates come from states where the Republican governor is already in the running, and others just chuckle at the idea that they are being mentioned.

At least six Republicans are in the dark horse category, including Senators Taft and Burton of Ohio,
Vandenberg of Michigan, Reverecomb of West Virginia, and Langer and Nye of North Dakota.

On the Democratic side, some serious moves have been made to advance Senator Byrd (D-Va.) as a potential candidate, and "Byrd-for President" headquarters have been opened in New Orleans.

Senator George (D-Ga.) also has been mentioned as a possible candidate of the southern group and friends of Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex.) are scouting his prospects.

Truman Denounces Canol Oil Project

Washington, Nov. 26 (AP)—Chairman Truman (D-Mo.) of the Senate War Investigating committee denounced the War department's $130,000,000 Canol oil venture Wednesday as a "bad project" which the United States "should not have undertaken."

He told reporters he was unanimous by testimony from War Undersecretary Patterson that the development at White Horse, Canada, for the protection of Alaskan defenses, was "a bold undertaking of which the War department is proud."

"It can not be utilized before the spring of 1944," said Truman. "Transportation costs of moving oil to the refinery do not justify the use of the manpower involved."

WOMEN PILOTS GROUNDED

Somerset, Pa., Nov. 26 (AP)—Four women members of the Army Ferry Command spent Tuesday night here after bad weather grounded their planes. The fliers, Mrs. Margaret Reives, Mary Thielens, Loretto Darby and Ellen Coxton, received their ships at a Lock Haven factory.

VETERAN SURGEON DIES

Greenville, Pa., Nov. 26 (AP)—A heart attack claimed the life last night of Dr. Clarence W. McElhaney, 75, veteran Greenville surgeon, and well-known throughout western Pennsylvania. He was a member of the American College of Surgeons.

These Many Years We've Satisfied TASTE

Throughout our business tenure we have blended, roasted and sold countless tons of coffee. It was largely sold in the same area which should be a convincing factor to prove that not only was our coffee of fine quality, but also, that it definitely is tastefully right. Because we have so long pleased the taste of thousands we were interested in knowing just what created the sense of taste. We inquired of an authority. We pass his answer on to you.

Let's Talk About Papillae . . . and LYON'S COFFEE

*PAPILLAE are the sensory organs of the tongue. They are designated as Fusiform, Fungiform and Circumvallate. (SO HELP US!) The Circumvallate are spindle shaped cells in an oval pattern at the back of the tongue. They are more commonly known as Taste Buds. These Papillae determine whether or not you will enjoy the taste of that which you eat or drink. It naturally follows that all tastes are not alike; and here's where Papillae and Lyon's Coffee meet on common ground. We roast and blend three totally different coffee flavors. One or more of them will satisfy the sensory desires of your individual Taste Buds, and make that particular blend 'first call' coffee. Select your choice from our blendings of Breakfast, Golden Roast or Cafe Supreme. Each provides to a delicate shade just the aroma, fragrance and taste you desire from coffee.

for average tastes

GOLDEN ROAST

Fine coffees roasted to a golden brown shade. While the flavor is full, it possesses the delicate taste and aroma associated with only the finest of coffees. We are quite sure this particular blend of coffee will prove quite popular with you and your family.

Tangy, Zestful
Full Flavor

CAFE SUPREME

Heavily roasted to offer that rich, full, tangy flavor that so pleasantly 'tops-off' any delicious dinner. If you like flavor of great strength, tempered with medium blends, we suggest this very popular brand. Packaged both in jars and the economy flavor paper packaging.

* Our Cafe Supreme now joins its famous 'team-mates' in the economy paper bag packaging . . . Cafe Supreme is now also sold in the flavor-tite sealed paper container. It will keep coffee fresh weeks after the average pound of coffee would have been consumed. You save 3¢ on every paper packaged pound.

NEW GROCERY RETAIL PRICES HAVE BEEN SET

New grocery community retail ceilings, which establish dollars and cents prices for 461 food commodities in thirty-three food groups are announced by the Harrisburg District Office of Price Administration.

The new price schedule becomes effective Monday, November 29, in this market area which includes Adams, Franklin, Lancaster and York counties.

About 90 per cent of all food commodities are now under fixed price ceilings; however, the new price ceilings include only thirty-three commodities, of which there are eight product groups listed for the first time. These are—tea, cocoa, dehydrated soups, soda crackers, graham crackers, gelatin and pudding mixes, dried fruits and baked beans.

The new list contains 190 new items and 66 changed price items in Group No. 1 and No. 2 independent stores doing up to $250,000 gross business annually and a total of 366 items in Group No. 3 and No. 4 (retail chain stores) of which 164 are published for the first time and 69 are changed prices. Most of the price changes reflect a one-cent change. One of the important changes is in the price of butter, which has dropped one cent per pound, and for one pound-quarters in cartons for the best grade, 93 score butter, the maximum ceiling price the consumer should pay from November 29th is 51¢ instead of the 52¢ ceiling price in effect up to this time.

New Lists Posted

New costs and a few new brands not listed in previous schedules are shown for the 1943 pack of canned tomatoes, peas, green beans, corn, tomato juice and pineapple. Canned fruit ceiling prices for the 1943 pack items will be established during December and announced by the Office of Price Administration about December 15.

New prices for peanut butter will be announced in December and will show a reduction of six to seven cents per pound at retail due to the federal government subsidy of 4½¢ per pound at the processor's level.

Merchants are being supplied by price panels of war price and rationing boards with printed posters showing all these price items. If there are any questions about other ceiling prices for foods not shown in the list, proper ceiling prices of these foods may be obtained from local price panels.

The average U. S. war expenditures per month now exceed the largest amount ever spent in a single peacetime year.

Seeking Skilled Men For Ship Repair

The Navy began enlisting skilled workers in non-restricted manpower areas today for its new Ship Repair Units, according to an announcement from the recruiting station located here in the post office building, Thursday.

Ship Repair Units—the SRU's—fix damaged fighting ships at advanced naval bases. J. C. Diehl, recruiter-in-charge said, or follow in the wake of attacking task forces—in fully-equipped repair ships—to repair all but major damage on the spot and get ship and crew back into the fight at the earliest possible moment.

Qualifications for enlistment, or voluntary induction of draft age men, in Ship Repair Units are, with few exceptions, similar to Seabee requirements. Carpenters, electricians, riggers, welders—mechanics of all kinds—are needed for patriotic service where their skills can be used for victory.

Gettysburg Ushers In 1943 Yuletide Season; Wartime Spirit Predominates

EXPECT XMAS STOCKS HERE TO FILL NEEDS

Don't Burn Up Santa's Whiskers

Look out! Don't celebrate Christmas by setting the house on fire. Safety councils are issuing warnings of increased fire hazards this Christmas, because of wartime shortages of electrical wiring and replacement parts. Old, frayed and defective wiring may be pressed into service, with dangerous results.

Junior may have to be content with a game instead of a new tricycle and sister may find that she was given a new book instead of a new doll, but Gettysburg merchants are convinced that Santa Claus will come once more despite war, rationing and shortages.

The same set of circumstances leave some merchants gloomy and some optimistic over the outlook for the Christmas days ahead—but the number of optimists outweigh those taking the darker side of the picture.

A number of merchants, who had placed orders for Christmas goods so long ago they had almost forgotten about them, were pleased during the last few weeks to have the orders come through and all of the merchandise they asked for included among the goods shipped.

On the strength of that fact many look forward with hope that other articles they have ordered will in due course show up.

Customers Cooperate

As one merchant put it—"If all the things I have ordered arrive we will have more Christmas goods than we know what to do with, and from the looks of things now I believe most of my goods will arrive in time for the Christmas buyers."

Most merchants were pleased with the response of the customers—already buying quantities of Christmas gifts. "If what they want is not available, the customers readily purchase some other articles," one store manager said. "There is no fuss or fury, everyone seems to realize there are bound to be shortages in some lines and if they can't buy what they originally desire they select gifts from the lines that are plentiful."

Good sound quality clothes and other articles are plentiful, but some of the frills are short.

Doll Shortage

The dolls that the young lady has always considered as "just the nicest Christmas gift" will not be available for some youngsters. Most of the dolls on sale are from last year's stocks with the war literally "knocking the stuffing" out of the new dolls. The excelsior that once filled the dolls is now used for shell packing and as a result the number of dolls made this year was greatly curtailed, store managers explained.

Haberdashery shops expect to have enough ties, shirts and gloves to get through the Christmas season without too great difficulty, but they warn customers to buy clothing that fits the person for which it is intended. While there will be enough for all—they explain, there will be difficulty in obtaining enough to supply a full line for the usual exchanges after Christmas.

Some stores are telling customers that the articles they buy cannot be exchanged and urging them to find the right size before buying.

Wooden Toys

Most of the stores have enough gaily decorated paper on hand to wrap Xmas packages. But some say they may have to ask Mr. and Mrs. Customer to bring their own boxes in from the attic. The Christmas wrapping, of course, extends only to those stores who have made a custom in previous years of wrapping the gifts ready for Christmas.

The war has taken over the design of most of the toys; with anti-aircraft guns, rifles and the like ready for Junior's enjoyment Christmas morning. But guns this year are wood instead of steel and iron, and the wagons and wheelbarrows that are traditionally the lot of the youngster are appearing in solid wood including the wheels. Chromium and other metal previously used in making youngsters' wagons and

PAPER ANGEL FOR HOLIDAY PIN-UP GIRL

BY VIVIAN BROWN

(The Associated Press)

Make some Christmas angels to sprinkle around your table. You can have 'em just as angelic looking as the store-made kind—and save money, too.

The following are directions for making a fringed angel centerpiece, angel favors, candle holders as worked out by Dennison:

MATERIALS: 1 fold each, blush pink, white duplex and primrose yellow crepe paper; 1 box blue lawyers' seals and red gummed dots, 1 spool wire, absorbent cotton, paste, gummed paper tape, silver dollies, red ribbon.

2—Wiring. Inspect carefully and repair or discard if defective.

3—Rubbish. Dispose of wrappings and empty boxes as soon as possible.

4—Candles. Don't use 'em on the Christmas tree!

And well before Christmas home fire extinguishers should be put in order.

scooters are now used for army and navy purposes.

Games Plentiful

Games are plentiful, as are books and many youngsters will find most of their Christmas gifts coming from those stocks. A large number of model airplane parts are also available and Junior will have to make more of his toys this year than ever before, it he wants airplanes.

Or the whole, the merchants say, things look promising for Christmas. The buying habits may change a little, with Dad not getting so much underwear, or pajamas as usual, and mother not seeing the usual Christmas packages of stockings in such abundance, but there will be other gifts.

And will they be bought? The merchants are as certain of that as that help and some goods will be short. This will be a banner year—with everybody wishing to buy gifts, and nearly everybody having the money to pay for them.

TOKEN GIFTS

Fob lockets and lockets and chains have a special place in this year's gift giving. Most every woman has a service picture to treasure, and a locket is a very special way to do the treasuring! A serviceman couldn't find a more certain-to-deep. Hair is 4 inches deep, 2½ inches long.

COLLAR is made by slashing a tiny silver doily from the outer edge to center. Overlap edges forming slight cone. Insert surplus neck crepe below doll's head in top of cone. Tie top curls together with red ribbon.

CUP is made by brushing paste around a nut cup or ramekin, covering with white paper. Allow ½ inch to extend beyond top of cup. Paste edge of doily to top of cup to hold in place.

CANDLEHOLDER: Using a strip of white paper 5 inches wide, make fringe same as for doll. Wind fringed strip around and around neck of low candlestick. Press fringe back, pasting last row on base of holder.

BODY: Roll a piece of outside wrapped in which paper comes into 8-inch tall cone. Fasten edges together with gummed tape. Brush paste over cone and cover with pink crepe. Paste surplus neck crepe below doll's head, over top of cone.

FRINGE: Fold white duplex paper in half lengthwise. Slash folded edge into coarse fringe 4 inches deep. Draw straight edge of top layer down 1 inch to make edge curl up slightly. Paste or stitch on sewing machine to hold in place. Gather top edge. Paste fringe in rows around cone, working from bottom up.

ARMS: Cut across grain strip of pink paper, 5 inches wide, 10 inches long. Stretch slightly. Roll over small dowel stick. Paste edges in place. Crush paper together on stick. Slip crushed paper off stick and pull out slightly for length of arms. Insert a piece of spool wire and fasten at each end to keep tube from stretching. Paste arms in place. Decorate neck with ribbon bow and streamers.

WINGS: Cut wings out of silver doily. Pin in place. Book is cut out of red mat or construction paper.

SHE'S "QUEEN" OF CHRISTMAS DOLL MAKING

By ADELAIDE KERR

When Beatrice Alexander was a little girl she never owned a doll. Since then she has owned a million.

Now, as one of the country's leading doll manufacturers, Mme. Alexander is one of Santa Claus' first assistants. And this year she is working overtime to fulfill her contracts for the dolls which Santa needs for Christmas stockings and trees. For now she must work under wartime restrictions.

"You should have seen us looking for a substitute for rubber bands," she said with a reminiscent chuckle as she checked through a pile of blonde beauties in her New York studio. "We have to have rubber bands to give stretch to the arm and leg mechanisms. So we cut up the hollow arms and legs of some of our rubber dolls to get them. Instead of a metal weight to move the eyes, we now use plastic. And the chemists had to find substitutes for critical chemicals in enamels."

But war restrictions or no, Madame Alexander's dolls still have the qualities that have made them famous—character and glamor. Her most famous have been the Dionne Quintuplets, Sonja Henie, Scarlett O'Hara and the Alice in Wonderland dolls, all dressed to represent the characters for which they are named. This year her Christmas favorites are the bride doll, the United Nations dolls and "The Little Shaver"—a wartime doll made entirely of fabric from head to heels.

When Mme. Alexander walks into a room, she is a sight to make anybody sit up. Her dark eyes dance. Her face, which makes no pretension of being wholly unlined, lights with radiant smile. She has beautiful feet and ankles, like frivolous red shoes. Mme. Alexander says that she is a grandmother in her late forties. Would that more grandmothers looked the same!

Beatrice Alexander has lived with dolls all her life. Her father, a Russian, and her mother, an Austrian, met on the boat enroute to America, were married in New York and took a small flat in Grand street. There her father, who had worked with a doll repairman in Germany, opened a doll's hospital and there among doll heads, arms and legs—Beatrice Alexander was born. Eventually her father began to sell dolls, which were then virtually all imported from Europe. There were dolls all over the place.

After her high school days she married Philip Behrman. She might never have thought much of dolls again, if World War I had not cut off the imported supply of dolls to America and thus cut off her parents' livelihood. Something had to be done. So she got out her needle and thread and made her first all-fabric dolls—a Red Cross nurse and an infant. Her father put them on sale and they sold so fast that their maker went into business for herself. Two years later her husband joined her.

WIDE CHOICE OF HOUSECOATS

Home is where you hang your heart, and it will be warm hearted, if you give housecoats as useful, practical gifts this Christmas.

There never have been so many wonderful housecoats as you will find waiting for your eager selection this year! There are wool mixtures, velvet quilts, crepes, satins and spun rayons in flattering silhouettes and too—too divine colors!

Don't make things difficult for yourself by setting your mind on a 100 per cent wool with four buttons just so . . . maybe you won't find it, no matter how hard you try—but you will find something delectable and warm, so why not be reasonable?

Hearth Coats

Most people will treasure their relaxing evenings at home this wartime winter, and they'll want to be warm and snug despite fuel rationing. All of which would seem to indicate that this is the year to give cozy housecoats for a gift of "health and happiness."

Quilted cotton robes are cheery little affairs, particularly in peppy prints—and their light and airy looks are definitely a snare and a delusion—because there's just about nothing warmer. For the ladies-on-your-list who keep the fires burning on the home front, quilted robes are thoughtful, understanding gifts—and they're mighty welcome for the youngsters, too! They wash, wear and insulate cheerfully and most effectively!

Jewelry Offers Lasting Gifts

A lasting gift has special appeal this Christmas, and jewelry takes its rightful place as an enduring remembrance, with an heirloom future.

Fine jewelry does not necessarily mean a large investment—there are lovely sterling silver and semi-precious stone pieces very modestly priced considering their intrinsic value.

NEW SPUD RULE

Allowances for country shippers who pack potatoes in containers of less than 100 pounds have been reinstated by the OPA. Premiums over the ceiling prices of potatoes packed in 100-pound bags are allowed to take care of the cost of labor and packaging materials, it was said. Similar allowances had been permitted by OPA for the 1942 potato crop.

service women, too! There isn't a WAC, WAVE or MARINE on your list who doesn't need a warm robe, and a good sturdy one!

G-I JOE ASKS GAL-A XMAS

Dear Santa Claus:
In case you don't know what we'd like to be toting down the har-racks chimney, this outfit has gotten together and decided on the following—assuming, of course, that Santa's just as big-hearted and broadminded as we have always thought.

How about KP insurance for all? Immunity against guard duty, self-cleaning rifles and non-crushable uniforms?

Then there might be self-perpetuating week-end passes. Black gloves instead of white for the brass hat inspectors. Permanent cases of laryngitis for top sergeants everywhere. Scooter bikes for long distance marches. Soap that isn't GI and yellow. Chambermaids to make up the beds. Shoes that never need polishing. Sheets with built-in square corners. Mail call every hour, on the hour.

And how about enough assorted blondes, brunettes and redheads to go around? You can mix 'em any way you like, but we'd like one for each, please—we share everything else.

Naturally, we'll need a furlough to go with the girls. Two weeks apiece would be nice, but we'll settle for two days. We'll certainly appreciate some of that green folding stuff to make the furlough interesting and the girls happy. And if you can arrange to tuck in with each gal a photo of herself, our barracks wall would be mighty pretty.

If there's any room left, an afternoon siesta might be nice—also an extra hour for lunch. Speaking of things to eat (we almost always are) you might pack in a turkey apiece, and twelve-inch individual pumpkin pies.

Dreamingly yours,
G. I. JOE
Elected representative of the optimists in Company B.

Picture Frames Specially Fitting

Picture frames make precious gifts as fitting settings for service pictures that are taking the place of honor in our homes.

Perhaps you never made gifts of picture frames before, but surely this is the year for thoughtful giving—and a picture frame for a serviceman's picture is a wonderfully friendly gift, this year!

HALF OF MINERS AGREE ON PAY

Washington, Nov. 26 (AP)—Operators producing about 50 per cent of the nation's soft coal have offered the United Mine Workers a contract that is substantially acceptable, but Union Chief John L. Lewis declared Wednesday the miners are "not interested" in an agreement with half the industry.

Refusal of the Southern Coal Producers Association to sign on a portal to portal basis and the absence of the captive (steel company) mine operators from the wage conference appeared to be the principal obstacles to a contract that would be virtually national in scope.

Conferees agreed to resume their discussions forthwith.

The AFL Progressive Mine Workers and a representative of their employers in Illinois meanwhile submitted a tentative wage agreement to the War Labor Board. The contents were not divulged.

The contract offered to Lewis is substantially the Ickes-Lewis agreement under which the mines are now operating, plus the $40 retroactive payment for underground travel time.

Edward R. Burke, president of the Southern Producers, said his group would sign a contract that would assure equivalent earnings, but he declines to pay the money on a portal to portal basis and wants eight hours of productive work assured instead of "assumed" as is provided in the Ickes-Lewis agreement.

Use Shoe Stamps For Family Members

A person may use his war ration stamp or that of a member of his family to acquire shoes as a Christmas gift for a member of his family living in the same household, it was pointed out Wednesday by Paul H. Dinkel, shoe rationing representative in the district OPA office in Harrisburg in reply to many recent inquiries.

It was stressed, however, by Dinkel that a person may not use his own war ration stamp to acquire shoes for anyone outside of his immediate family.

OPA regulations define a "family" as follows:

"Family means a group of two or more persons living in the same household, who are related by blood, marriage or adoption."

Patriotic advertisers are being asked by OPA to explain the above limitations and refrain from advertising shoes as gifts in face of reduced inventories and shortage of material.

YANKEES SHOP FROM FOXHOLES FOR YULE GIFTS

By ARLENE WOLF
The Associated Press

In slit trenches and foxholes, Yanks overseas are doing their Christmas shopping. Boys who are risking their lives in battle stations all over the world are taking time out to remember the spirit of Christmas giving and the folks back home.

Whether they're in Iceland or New Guinea, the boys are shopping by proxy in U. S. stores, with the help of the Navy League Shopping Service, mail order headquarters for the armed forces. And what are they buying? Pretty much the same sort of gifts they'd purchase at home.

Into the service's headquarters in New York pour requests and money to buy Mom a pocketbook, Suzy a cuddly doll and Dad a nice warm scarf. War bonds are way up on the list of preferred presents. Lingerie seems to be the favorite for wives; perfumes, flowers and sterling silver charms for sweethearts; and fathers will be getting a few pipes and sweaters according to orders received so far.

The boys want their mothers to have light floral scents, quilted robes and handkerchiefs, and suggest toys and mite-size military uniforms for the small fry if the family.

Keep 60 Shoppers Busy
The Service keeps up a voluminous correspondence with the boys overseas. As soon as a gift is purchased, they send the man in uniform a letter, telling how it was wrapped, how much it cost, where it was bought—and enclose a money order if there's any change. They get a steady stream of thank-you notes back from Yanks abroad. One proud father wrote appreciatively:

"The teddy bear was perfect for little Johnny. I'm enclosing a recent picture so you can see how he's grown since I ordered it. He can stand up and hold the teddy bear all at once now."

Yanks abroad haven't forgotten each other, either. V-mail letters from one APO direct the shoppers to send games, books, cameras, and other gifts to friends and relatives in the armed forces half way round the world.

The service's 60-odd volunteer shoppers, who have been trotting around from store to store for the last year, making sure that the service man gets the best buy for his money, are filling orders varying from a single Christmas card to long lists of gifts for everyone in the family. They have nothing but admiration for the boys who know exactly what they want, the size needed, color preferred, and who even send along photographs of the recipient just to make sure. But they do all right, too, with letters that read:

"I don't know what I want. I'd like to buy my sweetheart a Christmas present, something simple, plain, reserved, and with good quality. Enclosed is a check."

"I hope that you will be the answer to a cast-off Marine's prayer," read another letter from the tropics.

"I want to give my wife a Christmas present, but know that if I send her the money she won't feel it is right in these times to buy something gay, fun, and wonderful to have. Please send her something."

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

Although wounded by a Jap's vicious hooked bayonet in hand-to-hand combat on Guadalcanal, Marine Pfc. Harold Pazofsky of Brooklyn, N. Y., finally succeeded in cutting his opponent down with his machete. Our boys are willing to spend their lives. How much more can you afford to lend by increasing your Payroll Savings allotment? Take a pencil and figure it out.

HOSIERY, UNDIES ARE GOOD BUYS

Some bright lad once remarked that he wished women would dress more warmly, because no matter how smart they were they never looked pretty with a red nose!

With all the dashing about outdoors we'll be doing this winter, warm hose and undies are aids to comfort, beauty and good health. And that puts warm gifts to the fore for Christmas giving, as practical things-to-wear in tune with wartime giving.

Cotton, lisle and wool hosiery have come in for quite a bit of wonder-working as a result of wartime. The hosiery manufacturers have gone all out to develop fine fitting, long wearing lises, sheer but warm wool, slimming novelty cottons. You won't go wrong if you stock up your gift lists with warm hosiery, and you will find many good looking types ready for your early selection.

Understanding Gifts

Warm undies have made many new friends, and influenced many people, as a result of fuel rationing and the imperative need to keep well and on the job. There's no more practical gift than warm undies, and there's nothing disinteresting about the idea, either. Knitted cotton and wool mixtures snug-fits can do a lot for a streamlined silhouette and they come in many delightful colors, too. Why not make your Christmas giving functional and fun, by selecting undies to convey your warm wishes?

Bed socks are no longer the prerogative of grandmothers! They're being worn by the teens and twenties, too—and they make pleasing gifts that will be appreciated. See the kitten-soft wool ones at your favor-

NON-PRIORITY TOYS, GAMES FOR CHRISTMAS

This year American mothers and fathers may have to deny themselves many pre-war luxuries and non-essentials. But one thing they will not have to forego is the laughter and eye-sparkle of the children, come Christmas morning. Although the toy industry of the nation has not been given a 1-A war-industry rating, sufficient material has been allocated to the manufacturers of toys and games to give Sister and Junior in the average American home a more than satisfactory "haul" from St. Nick on December 25.

For Boys—Military Toys

Budding Commandos and Rangers can bang away on toys inspired by the best efforts of our own American production-line genius. Wood, paper and plastics have been marshaled to create imagination-provoking toys with a constructive rather than destructive influence. Miniature wooden jeeps, command cars, ack-ack and machine guns and airplanes are just a few of the news-conscious playthings available to the small soldiers on the home-front. Kits for plane and boat-building, together with map-making and "spotting" games are other military-inspired amusements-givers that help equip young citizens to follow the doings of their dads and brothers in active service at home or abroad.

Trains, construction sets and other Christmas favorites are still on the available gift-list, and prove pleasure-sharers in which both parents and children can participate.

For Girls—Domestic" Toys

Junior WACS, WAVES and SPARS will find many of brother's toys of considerable interest, and with the schools reporting almost equal interest on the part of girls in plane-building and other related subjects, it may well be that the day of the feminine military experts is here to stay. Nevertheless, the perennial favorites . . . dolls, miniature stoves, dishes, tea sets, dolls' houses and wardrobes are ranking high as Christmas '43 favorites. This year they have particular significance as supplements to the schooltime conservation programs, as they offer junior homemakers the particular opportunity to combine fun with practicality, as taught in the classroom. Miniature kitchen and laundry equipment are among the more timely toy suggestions with which to greet young bonnie lasses for these down-to-earth holidays.

SERVICEMEN WILL ENJOY YULE CARDS

(The Associated Press)
An old-fashioned red and green Christmas for your service man will remind him of home—no matter in what part of the world he's obliged to be.

When choosing your greeting cards, remember the Christmas symbols your boy associates with home — Santa Claus, poinsettias, the Service" cards, novelty cards "From the Bunch" with a note-sized insert for all the signatures, and greetings with space for a snapshot are other popular creations.

But the winter scenes, horses and sleighs, little houses aglow with candlelight, decorated trees, fireplaces, bells in a church steeple, organs and choir boys, these are the cards the servicemen want most—they'll help bring them nearer to home this Christmas.

Make it a thrifty CHRISTMAS—give WAR BONDS. Keep on BACKING THE ATTACK.

evergreens, a Christmas wreath outside the door, ringing church bells. This is the year to bring those things closer to him.

Cards with religious motifs are popular, as are those which in simple inscription tell of mother love: "For a Dear Son In The Service."

There are cards addressed to men in every branch of the service: to WAVES, WACs, Nurses. For those who like to add a touch of the patriotic, there are, among others, a jolly snowman gaily waving Old Glory, a red and white striped peppermint stick tied with a blue star, a red bow, and Santa Claus wearing Uncle Sam's high hat.

NEW TAX BILL BODY BLOW TO ADMINISTRATION

SEEK TAX FROM GAME OFFICIALS

Harrisburg, Nov. 26 (AP) — Pennsylvania school officials Wednesday faced the job of rounding up back federal taxes on fees paid game officials and game assistants during the football season.

The Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association advised administrators of member schools the federal internal revenue department is expected to confirm a ruling requiring the payment of the 20 per cent income withholding tax on fees paid game officials.

"If the 20 per cent has not been withheld to date," the PIAA declared, "it is suggested that the administrators communicate with the game officials, as well as game assistants, and have them make the tax return on fees paid them thus far."

Edmund Wicht, PIAA executive secretary, explained considerable misunderstanding has existed over whether fees paid referees, umpires and ticket takers and sellers fall within the provisions of the federal withholding tax law.

"The question is still under the status of an appeal to the internal revenue authorities from the decision rendered," he said, "because it has always been an accepted fact that game officials are individual contractors, and not employees."

"It has, likewise, been the opinion of school authorities that ticket takers and ticket sellers are casual employees performing duties incident to the regular jobs and, therefore, should be exempt from the provisions of the withholding tax law."

Wicht, who said some schools had withheld the tax, added the PIAA has 1,200 football officials and more than 900 basketball referees.

Umbrellas Lost Some Ribs To War

Umbrellas are on the war casualty list, to some extent, since they've given several ribs to the cause—but that doesn't mean you won't find fine umbrellas for gifts this year.

There are plenty of umbrellas, all well made of quality materials, ready to serve long and faithfully though minus a few ribs in their construction.

You will find 10 and 12-rib umbrellas ready and waiting for holiday selection—and anyone on your gift list will be ready and willing to accept one with hearty thanks!

SAINT NICK MAY USE HOME-MADE TOYS THIS YEAR

BY DOROTHY ROE

By The Associated Press

The boys and girls of America have heard about the toy shortage. They've read that Santa Claus is in dire trouble at his North Pole workshop, with production cut 50 per cent, and the demand almost doubled.

They've heard that there may be some children with empty stockings this year—but still they don't believe it. With true American optimism, they cling firmly to the sublime faith of childhood that old Santa won't let them down.

The small fry are, as usual, right. Toys will be different this year, and there's going to be a mad last-minute scramble on the part of dilatory parents. But Santa Claus hasn't retained top billing through the years for nothing.

Using Swap-Shops

If he runs out of ready-made toys before December 25 (and a survey of toy stocks in retail stores shows this is a strong probability), he's going to put all the papas and mamas to work turning out homemade toys that will be just as wonderful and exciting as the store-bought kind.

Already parents are practicing on home-made wooden doll carriages and doll beds, carpenter benches and sleds. Attics are giving up long-forgotten velocipedes and electric trains and bicycles, to be repainted, refurbished, and traded at a "swap shop" for some other currently rare plaything.

The "swap shop" is one of the best tricks up Santa's sleeve. One or more is springing up in almost every city and village, a war-born necessity. Here mothers and fathers trade Junior's outgrown skates for a steel construction set, or Sister's discarded baby doll for a repainted tricycle. Many of the shops have repair departments, where traders may refurbish swapped toys on the spot.

Christmas Dates Around The World

(The Associated Press)

Christmas is Christmas—but not always at the same time.

Here are some of the varying dates upon which the Yule season is celebrating among nations and racial groups:

Nov. 11, St. Martin's Day, is celebrated in peacetime Belgium much the same as the U. S. marks Dec. 25, with a figure dressed as a bishop traveling from house to house giving children presents.

Dec. 6, for the Netherlands and Bohemia, is St. Nicholas feast day.

Jan. 1 in France and Quebec is far more festive than Dec. 25, with present-giving, visiting and banquets.

Jan. 5 on the Hatteras Island of Rodanthe, N. C., "Old Christmas" or Twelfth Night is the date for Santa Claus.

SUGGESTIONS FOR MAKING XMAS GIFTS

By MAXINE BERLOW
The Associated Press

In addition to their Christmas shopping some women like to make a few gifts to supplement their purchases.

A few yards of ribbon plus a little ingenuity can turn out accessories that will delight the heart of any woman.

Here are a few suggestions:

MAKE-UP KIT

Buy one-half yard of five-inch plaid taffeta ribbon, and one-half yard of contrasting ribbon for lining. Stitch around edges, fold over three times, envelope style, blind-stitch ends, and use a narrow velvet ribbon for a tie.

The stunning black grosgrain evening bag is made on the same principle, only you get ribbon 7 to 10 inches wide and use it to cover the back and flap of an old handbag—the bigger the better. Add a jeweled clip or two.

A glamor belt is easy to make with about a yard and a half of satin ribbon (fuchsia or kelly green is effective with a black dress). Sew matching ball fringe on bottom edge, tie in a bow.

Hair ribbons a la mode will serve as an evening hat to thrill any glamor girl. Takes about 2½ yards of three-inch taffeta ribbon with picot edge.

Wide striped ribbons attached to a wooden sole make stunning espadrilles, and you can dress up a pair of evening gloves by sewing two or three bands of vivid contrasting ribbon on the cuff.

Make it yourself—for gifts. Warm, pretty headshawl—super for fuel rationed homes!

USE OF SEQUINS

It's a glittering idea to decorate a chiffon headscarf with a border and sprinkles of sequins.

For a more elaborate gift, sew bands of sequins in a border design around an evening shawl.

An evening bag acquires added importance if you cover the flap with sequins, and you can run up a stunning evening belt by covering a cheap cloth belt with the glittering discs.

It's fun to make a glitter necklace with multiple bands of sequins in all colors, arranged in U-shape and tied together with a narrow velvet ribbon at the back.

Sequins can be sewed bracelet-fashion on evening gloves or used to cover felt hats. A half dozen of the latter would make a sure-fire gift hit for any young girl—or her mama.

Girls who like glitter also would be overwhelmed to receive a beanie decorated with sequins, for wear after five.

Sequins-by-the-yard usually come stitched on bands of net, so they are easy to sew. You can buy them in all colors, and in many designs and sizes, to add to the general sparkle of a home-made Christmas.

TABLE MATS

For friends who live in the country, nothing could be more welcome than a set of table mats and coasters with white centers and red or blue borders. For the plate mats, buy 10 yards of half-inch white cord, and two yards of contrasting color.

Then sew it together with plain needle and thread, round and round until you have a 12-inch circle. Two rows of contrasting cord form the border.

Cup and saucer mats and coasters are made the same way, but require only three yards of white cord and three-quarters yard of contrasting color.

Another slick trick is to cover a mirror or picture frame with the cord, which is glued in place and may be finished with a coat of shellac.

The same technique works in decorating a wastebasket, or in covering an old bottle or jug to be made into a lamp.

You may sew the cord together, cup-shape, to make jackets for glasses, or use the thicker cord in red or blue for towel racks, which are held in place by star-shaped glass medallions at each end.

A bath mat takes 10 yards of thick white cord and 12 yards of contrasting color, and should be sewed together in an oval with colored center and border.

Neatest trick of the week is the matching bag and beret, gay in bright red cord. Make two discs on the same principle as the circular table mat and sew them together, leaving a hole at the top for the bag. Add double loop handles of the same cord.

For the beret, start as you do to make the table mat, and make a disc about nine inches in diameter. This forms the top of the beret. For the under side, leave a hole of the required head-size in the middle, and proceed as before. Sew the two discs together at the edges.

HEADRESS, CHOKER

For a frivolous gal, make a headress of four ostrich plumes (50 to 75 cents each) fastened together with a twist of velvet and sewed to a comb.

An important gift for a femme fatale type would be a peplum of coq feathers. You buy these in clumps at 75 cents to $1 each and sew them to a wide velvet ribbon which ties in front.

XMAS LINGERIE AFFORDS WIDE GIFT CHOICES

FAMILY GAMES ARE STAGING BIG COMEBACK

BY VIVIAN BROWN

Santa's not going to disappoint you after all. His Yuletide pack may be short of a great number of familiar toys, but there will be games that all the family can enjoy together.

A variety of easy-to-learn, quick action parlor games made of non-priority materials, is ready. Sister and brother and the grown-ups too will forget about limitations on the family car.

Some old favorites like Book, popular in the horse-and-buggy age, are being revived this Christmas. The game has won favor in the armed forces where a variety of new techniques has been added to increase the difficulty of "not getting rooked."

Pit, the wheat pit speculation game of the Nineties, is another old craze to be revived. The object of this old time trading game is to corner the market on wheat, corn, barley, flax, oats or hay by trading cards representing these grains.

New Games Too

A game of real estate Monopoly and Finance, another of the rubber speculation games, appeal to both family and service men. Sorry, the English game that won popularity during the blitz, is another best seller.

For armchair commandos, a new interest is Navy Wefup, an airplane identification game, developed by the Special Devices Section of the Navy Bureau of Aeronautics and used by the Navy as one of the many official methods to teach recognition of the fine points of Allied and enemy aircraft.

The name Wefup is derived from

Monogrammed Gifts Practical

This year, particularly, practical giving is a first consideration—and monogramming answers a very practical need! Doubling up of drawer and closet space due to wartime living, uncertain laundry service, and many unaccustomed but unavoidable changes in daily routine make monogramming practically a necessity, as a certain means of identification of treasures that are "truly yours."

Aside from the practical value of monogramming, the sentimental appeal is also worth consideration—for surely the gift that is monogrammed is meant for you! And, of course, gifts to service men are more endearing, when they are monogrammed, for that "I am somebody" feeling that's apt to get missed when the boys are confronted with a string of numbers alongside their names!

As for gifts that service men will be giving to their friends and loved ones, the personalized touch will mean more than ever this year. Monograms and initials will serve as constant heart warming reminders that her soldier, sailor or marine selected the gift, and added her monogram to make it personal, as well as pretty!

When the United States entered World War I there were only 56 planes, 65 officers and 1,000 enlisted men in the Army air corps.

the first letters of the parts of an airplane which are usually observed in determining identity: Wings, Engines, Fuselage, Tail, Undercarriage, and Peculiarities. The game consists of 54 cards giving silhouette views of Allied and enemy planes. Though it is the toughest and most technical of the war games published for home front consumption, to the amazement of game experts, it has become a best seller.

ACCESSORIES PRACTICAL AS XMAS PRESENTS

A wardrobe is as varied as its accessories, and since variety is still the spice of life, accessories are just the right seasoning!

An accessories gift, this year, means a new personalty for basic costumes doing patriotic duty during wartime! That simple dress, or classic suit, will put on a new holiday air if the gifts you give are accessories.

It's a practical idea, but even if you've a WAVE or a WAC bag, jewelry, gloves and neckwear are sure-fire delight with the young crowd—and nothing else quite so practical manages to be quite so much fun!

Any woman can use, and will appreciate, a gift of kid gloves of lady-like elegance and fine quality.

long wear and a trim appearance.

That goes for the men on your list, too—cape, mocha or pigskin will come in mighty "handy!" Of course, if your man goes down to the sea in ships or is in the service where it's cold, lined gloves or wool would be a better choice.

But even if you choose the brightest colors for your feminine friends—or the frillest dream-of-a-glove you ever did see, you're being practical, really—because a gift of gloves is a gift to wear.

Sterling

Silver Welcome Present

Sterling silver jewelry, hand wrought or with a handwrought look, is at its best in classic design pins, bracelets and necklaces. It's the perfect gift this year, since suits are the backbone of wartime wardrobes. Mexico has contributed considerably toward variety in silver jewelry, and the native designs and craftsmanship are worthy of praise. Sterling silver jewelry makes the perfect gift—it is ageless, authentic and suitable for all types—a "sterling" gift, indeed!

The finest CHRISTMAS present you can give is one of Uncle Sam's WAR BONDS. Keep on BACKING THE ATTACK.

A dickey for Christmas—super for college and career girls! With convertible ruffle edged neckline.

How To Make A WAC Merry

If you want to make it a merry Christmas for a WAC in Africa, send her a box of the sheerest stockings you can find, a good two-way stretch girdle or a glamorous bathing suit.

That's the advice offered by a recent government survey, based on reports from returning WACs.

Other items wanted by nurses and WACs overseas, include: Family needs, such as soap, starch and clothespins. Cosmetics, gloves, lingerie that can be easily laundered, handkerchiefs, tailored slips, hairpins, bobby pins, towels and wash cloths.

Satin gowns, crepe gowns, lacy gowns come in for their share of sleeves—if it's glamour you're after . . . and, of course, warm gowns wear sleeves as part of their personality! But whatever type you plan to give, you'll find it with sleeves, if you're interested.

All of which doesn't mean that sleeveless beauties are hard-to-find . . . Christmas stocks are replete with smoothie gowns, loaded with lace and loveliness, and certain to delight the busy wartime woman who goes completely feminine in her precious relaxing moments!

Bedjacket Bounty
Bedjackets make delightful gifts, and somehow seem like the sort of thing one should receive as a gift rather than buy for oneself! This is a wonderful Christmas for bedjackets—for fuel-rationed reading in bed, and for mothers-to-be. Look over your gift list, and write in "bedjacket" here and there—you will find a satisfactory assortment to choose from, in lacy wools, quilted confines, pretty-up crepes and satins. You may be sure you will be remembered gratefully on many winter nights when your bedjacket gift will prove its comforting charm!

Jumper Dresses
Versatile Gift

Jumper dresses are 1944 favorites in the fashion picture! So if you're shopping around for a practical, attractive gift for Christmas, choose a jumper. They're so trimly tailored, so feminine yet casual, they can be worn anywhere, at any time. And they're as popular with mother, as they are with teen-age daughter and career girl. You'll find that local stores have a wide variety of styles and fabrics from which to choose. Smoothly tailored with heart or V-shaped necklines, they're smart as they are warm and versatile in wools, corduroys and daytime velveteens. And priced to fit all Christmas budgets!

Gifts To Wear

"Something to wear" is always thoughtful giving, and more so, for Christmas, 1943! A gift of gloves can be as practical as or prettier as you wish—from sturdy wools to lush color fabrics. Young girls love bright wool gloves and mittens, and this year these "warmies" are taking to monograms, for private session prestige. Of course, fur mittens are sure-fire delight with the young crowd—and nothing else quite so practical manages to be

XMAS QUIZ; HOW MANY CAN YOU ANSWER?

Chances are you know your Christmas customs backwards and forward but did you ever stop to think about the why of all the merry holiday activities? Here are a few questions to test yourself...

- When you perch precariously on a ladder hanging holly and mistletoe, do you know what they signify?
- Why is the Yule Log traditionally associated with Christmas?
- When you gather 'round the washtub bowl, will you know what Wassail means?
- Where was Santa Claus born?
- Are Christmas candles just decorations, or do they mean something?
- Where does the word Yule come from?
- Why are gifts exchanged on Christmas Day?
- If you were playing Santa Claus in the Netherlands, what kind of costume would you wear?
- What form of transportation can Santa use, in addition to a sleigh?
- St. Nick is sometimes called Kris Kringle. What does the name mean?

ANSWERS

- Evergreen decorations derive from the pagan belief that they are symbols of good luck, and from the medieval legend that all trees and growing things in the forest blossomed and bare fruit on the night of the Nativity.
- In days of yore, the Yule Log was the chief emblem of the English Christmas, following the ancient tradition that the fire on the hearth symbolized the center of family life.
- The expression originated in the 5th century in England when the legendary Rowena came into the presence of King Vortigern bearing a gold cup of wine, and said "Waes haec, Hlaford Cyning,"—Be of health, good King!"
- According to the Bible, St. Nicholas was born in the thriving port of Patara, opposite the Island of Rhodes in Lycia, an Asia Minor province of the Roman Empire.
- Christmas candles are supposed to guide the Christ child to your doorstep, an Austrian legend says.
- It is believed that Yule is derived from an old Norse name for one of the winter months.
- Legend has it that St. Nicholas took pity on three daughters of an impoverished merchant, and surreptitiously gave them dowries. That's how the custom of giving secret gifts on the eve of St. Nicholas Day (Dec. 6) originated. The date was moved to December 25.
- A long clerical robe, like a bishop's—op's—traditional Netherlands garb for St. Nick.
- A white horse—in Belgium and the Netherlands.
- Kris Kringle is a corruption of the Teutonic "Christ-kindel," or "Christ-child."

10-MIN. DOODLEBUG

Richmond, Calif., Nov. 26 (AP)—Purely for fun, officials at Henry J. Kaiser's permanent shipyard "No. 4F" built, launched and delivered a sturdy and sea-worthy vessel, the U.S.S. Doodlebug, in just 10 minutes. The Doodlebug is a flat-bottom skiff, eight feet from stem to stern.

Legend has it that St. Nicholas took pity on three daughters of an impoverished merchant, and surreptitiously gave them dowries. That's how the custom of giving secret gifts on the eve of St. Nicholas Day (Dec. 6) originated. The date was moved to December 25.

8. A long clerical robe, like a bishop's—op's—traditional Netherlands garb for St. Nick.

9. A white horse—in Belgium and the Netherlands.

10. Kris Kringle is a corruption of the Teutonic "Christ-kindel," or "Christ-child."

AMERICAN HEROES

BY LEFF

The Distinguished Service Cross has been awarded Staff Sgt. Doyle Kimmery of Huntington, Texas, for manning a sub-machine gun and returning the fire of low-flying enemy planes during the Jap attack on Hickam Field. When his ammunition was gone he ran from the cover of his truck to get more, and kept firing until the truck was bombed. He showed bravery beyond the call of duty. Figure out for yourself how much you can invest in War Savings beyond what you are doing now.

"Shop Early" Is Patriotic Duty

This Christmas "Shop Early" is more than a slogan; it is your patriotic duty. Because by doing your Christmas shopping early, you'll have more time to shop carefully, salespeople will be able to give you more attention, and at the same time you'll have a better selection of gifts. Plus the all-important fact that you'll help relieve the store's personnel problem.

Remember that many of the men and women who used to serve you are now in the armed forces. It is particularly important that you shop early for those gifts which must be mailed. Post office facilities are overtaxed tremendously, so make sure your gifts are received in time for Christmas—mail them early! Above all, early Christmas shopping means avoiding the fatigue and anxiety that are inevitable with last minute shopping.

East Berlin

A cat forced its way into a chicken house at the property of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis W. Deatrick, R. 2, during the past week and had killed two large chickens before it was discovered by Mrs. Deatrick, who killed the animal with an iron bar.

John Leib, who spent a month with his son, Harold Leib, and family, Malta, Montana, has returned home.

Chester Zeigler, R. 2, has secured a tenant for his farm and with his wife and son, Clyde, have moved to the Maserer property, Abbottstown street, formerly the home of H. Ernest Maserer and family.

NECKWEAR SURPRISES

Neckwear departments are gold mines for wardrobe-stretcher gifts, lightheartedly useful. Dickies are just about the most amiable little inventions ever—a flock of dickies will make any dress or suit quite a wardrobe! Everybody wears dickies, so why not make it a dickey Christmas, and get "up to your neck" in Christmas cheer?

Give Gifts That Teach Self-Reliance

This is the year to make your gift a practical one, in every sense of the word. This applies as much to the toys you select for your youngest friends, as to the functional remembrance you select for their parents.

One of the best ways to instill self-reliance and a sense of responsibility in tomorrow's citizen, is to give them a "pet" doll or toy that they may take care of... regard as their "very own." The appreciation of the needs and problems of others may seem too adult a consideration to be applied to a child of nursery age. Yet, this very awareness can be gradually developed by means of fostering the instincts natural to the child.

11 BANKS WILL MAIL $205,209 TO 4,450 XMAS CLUB MEMBERS

Early next month eleven Adams county banks will mail approximately 4,450 Christmas club checks which will place more than $205,000 at the disposal of countians who are ready to start their Christmas shopping early.

The Christmas club savings in the county this year are nearly $9,000 above the total for 1942 when the number of club members was estimated at 4,400.

The average check for each club member this year is $46.20. Last year the average was $44.87, an increase of about $5 per check from the 1941 average.

The largest club in the county was conducted by The Gettysburg National bank which announced this afternoon it will distribute a total of $64,009.02 to 1,256 club members on December 1. Last year the bank's club members saved $62,367.64.

Set New Records

The First National bank of Gettysburg approximately equalled its 1942 club record with a total of $34,800 to be distributed by check about December 1. Approximately 1,150 accounts were carried in the club.

The Littlestown State bank represents the largest club in its history with a total of $33,000 ready for its depositors about December 1. There were 687 members of the club. Last year the bank distributed $29,875.

The Littlestown National Christmas club reports $25,000 will be mailed to about 400 club members there on December 1.

To Mail Checks Soon

The Farmers' Bank of McSherrystown reached a new high with its Christmas club this year. Four hundred and seventy depositors will receive checks totaling $21,000 next week. The club total last year was $19,500.

The Farmers and Merchants bank of New Oxford reports that 200 depositors saved a total of $12,200 during the last year. Their checks will be mailed next Wednesday.

Seventy-five club members at the First National bank of Fairfield will divide a total of $5,500 next week.

Club members at the Bigerville National bank will be mailed checks next Tuesday for $5,400. There are 110 accounts in the club.

Plan '44 Clubs

At the Bendersville National it was announced that checks amounting to between $1,700 and $1,750 will be mailed December 1 to 40 club members.

Clubs operated by the York Springs National bank and the Arendtsville National bank both accumulated about $1,200, annual reports showed. The Arendtsville bank will mail its checks during the second week of December. At York Springs they will be mailed December 1.

The two banks at East Berlin and the Abbottstown State bank did not conduct clubs during the last year and have not made plans for clubs in 1944.

All of the banks that operated clubs in 1943 said they are continuing club plans in 1944. Some reported that bond and stamp sales caused reductions in Christmas saving club balances but other banks could notice no difference. Absence of interest on the Christmas accounts also failed to make any great difference in the clubs' popularity.

BENNER QUILTS ASSISTANCE BD.

Banks E. Benner, Fairfield R. D., fruit grower, who was elected chairman of the Adams County Assistance Board two months ago, has resigned as a member of the board, it was learned Friday. An assistance board spokesman in announcing the resignation said Mr. Benner had given no reason for his action.

Mrs. William Arch McClean, vice chairman, presided at the November meeting of the board held Thursday at the assistance office in Gettysburg.

A report on the case load by the director, Mrs. Verna Myers, showed the number of cases to be 48 less than last year at the same time, with 27 less cases in old age assistance, six less for blind pension, three for aid to dependent children, and 12 for general assistance. There are 672 cases on the rolls at the present time, divided between 445 old age assistance; 72 pensions to the blind, 92 aid to dependent children, and 61 general assistance.

BULL'S EYE

With the Fifth U. S. Air Force in New Guinea, Nov. 23 (AP) — The reconnaissance unit had to see the pictures, before the Liberator crew could be credited with a direct hit on an 8,000-ton Jap freighter.

The unit's photographic officer reported shortly and gleefully to Bombardier Second Lt. Don Scullock, Butler, Ala.

The Liberator's second 1,000-pounder had dropped "down the smokestack."

MAN KEPT FROM JAIL TERM BY "REPUTATION"

Robert C. Dietz, Hallam R. 1, who had entered "no defense" plea in an involuntary manslaughter case resulting from the traffic accident death of William W. Miller, Gettysburg R. 5, or October 13, was fined $250 on the charge Saturday morning by the county court.

Five character witnesses, including his pastor and his employer, who called him "our best man," took the stand to testify prior to the passing of sentence on the Hallam truck driver whose loaded truck smashed into the rear of a grain drill driven by the late Mr. Miller on October 13.

The court in passing sentence told Dietz, "A man is very fortunate when he has a reputation such as yours and can secure the caliber of witnesses to testify to his character that you have." However, the court pointed out, it was more impressed by "your own appearance on the stand." Sentences are given to correct the individual and to warn the public, the court told Dietz, adding that "obviously you do not need a sentence to correct you. Only your character and reputation" barred Dietz from a jail sentence, the court said in suspending jail sentence on the charge and fining the Hallam man $250 and costs in the case.

Charles J. Kint, 20, Gettysburg R. 5, who told the court he had worked as a shipbuilder until he was told by his draft board he either had to "farm or fight" and who said he chose the farm, picked the farm instead of the Army for the second time Saturday. Kint had been arrested on a charge of driving a car after his license had been suspended. The court offered a 30-day sentence which it said would be suspended if he volunteered immediately for service with the armed forces. Kint answered, "I'll take the 30 days." He will also have to pay the costs. Kint is unmarried.

John Alexander Pogue, Waynesboro, charged with the theft of 25 gallons of gasoline from an Adams county farmer, was given 30 days in jail and ordered to pay $5 for the stolen gasoline. He also must pay the costs. A prisoner since the time of his arrest a month ago, Pogue's sentence was dated from the time he was jailed so that he is now ready for release.

Seven Conewago township residents were sentenced this morning on serious charges with penalties ranging from probation orders to six-month jail terms.

Harry Clinton Lemmon; his wife, Mary Elizabeth Lemmon; Claude P. Bankert, Robert L. Luckenbaugh and Mrs. Vergie Pauline Curry, all of Conewago township, were given six-month jail terms and ordered to pay the costs of their cases. Each faced serious charges.

Miss Mary Wolf, also of Conewago township, charged with a serious offense, was fined $100 and given a suspended jail sentence. She was placed on probation and ordered to pay the costs. Lewis Edward Small, same place, drew a suspended jail sentence on a serious count, was placed on probation for a year and ordered to pay weekly support order of $2. He must post a $500 bond.

Floyd Miller, Jr., 18, Carlisle street, who with a 17-year-old companion admitted robbing the Gettysburg Hardware store of $65 the night of October 1, was given a suspended jail sentence on condition that his plans to enter the Army this Tuesday are carried out. Miller must repay half of the stolen money and the costs of the case.

"The only way you can square yourself with the court is to make of yourself the best possible soldier," Judge W. C. Sheely told the youth. Miller told the court "devilishness" had made him break into the store. Chief of Police Glenn Guise told Judge Sheely that Miller was one of a group of boys which applied a coat of paint to a parked machine in McSherrystown one night recently.

His wife also had difficulties with the state police on Friday when she determined to drive home to secure some articles for Rohrbaugh to take with him to Carlisle. Enroute to New Oxford she was stopped by a local motor policeman to determine whether she was breaking the speed regulations. No charges have been laid against Mrs. Rohrbaugh so far.

To All Adams Countians In Service:

GREETINGS:

Do you remember the special "Merry Christmas" edition we published last year containing greetings from you folks in service to your home folks and their Xmas greetings to you?

Well, we are going to do practically the same thing this year. However, it will have to be on a little different scale. Because of the shortage of newsprint paper we won't be permitted to publish a special edition on book paper . . . but we will publish the Xmas greetings in our annual Christmas edition.

That's what this special message is about.

We'd like to have you send us, NOW, your own personal Xmas greeting message for your folks. Of course, we don't want them to know about it, so please don't tell them.

Just sit down, as soon as you get a few minutes spare time, and write your own Merry Christmas greeting to your folks. BUT BE SURE TO SEND IT TO US. We'll take care of it and publish it in our annual Christmas edition . . . as a sort of a surprise to your folks at home. Of course, you'll get a copy of the edition, too.

Please don't wait until the last minute. You know how these war-time conditions have drained us of manpower . . . making us rather short-handed in our plant. We don't mind that, because it's all part of the program to win this war. But we need time to put this edition together so if you send us your Christmas Greeting now it will help us out considerably.

Just do it this way.

Write your parents' full name and complete address, at the top of the page. Then write your Christmas greeting. Then sign the message giving us your complete name, rank and address. That's all. We'll do the rest.

Thanks a lot and good luck to you all.

YOUTHS STEAL CARS FOR WILD "EXCURSIONS"

Nocturnal excursions of a quartet of Gettysburg youths who traveled in "borrowed" cars, fueled by stolen gasoline coupons and financed at least partly by sale of auto accessories that did not belong to them, were brought to a close last week by Chief of Police Glenn Guise and Private Harold Trout of the state police.

The youths, ranging in age from 14 to 17 years and residing in or near Gettysburg, arraigned in juvenile court.

Chief Guise said Thursday that the boys for some time had been removing cars at night from the storage room operated by Glenn C. Bream at the rear of the former Butt's restaurant on York street, and using them for trips of 200 to 300 miles a night.

Damage Property

Police had heard from many sources about the "high jinx" that had marked those nightly excursions but it was only Saturday a week that Mr. Bream reported that someone apparently was taking his used cars out of storage at night and returning them before dawn with speedometers showing considerably higher readings.

Farms had reported mailboxes knocked over or broken. Parked cars in Bonneaville and elsewhere had mysteriously been overturned at night. Others had been given partial new coats of paint in assorted hues. Car windows had been smashed and accessories had disappeared.

Chief Guise said the youths used a pass key to enter the garage on their frequent visits.

Most of the nightly excursions were made in the direction of Hanover, the officer asserted.

Members of the local state police Friday turned over to military authorities at Carlisle Pvt. Reginald H. Rohrbaugh, New Oxford R. 2, who has been allegedly AWOL from the Army since August 14, when he left his post at Camp Van Dorn, Mississippi.

The police arrested Rohrbaugh at his home near New Oxford Thursday evening when they discovered him in some hay in a barn where according to police he had gone to hide when he saw the officers approaching. The soldier was placed in the county jail overnight.

His wife also had difficulties with the state police on Friday when she determined to drive home to secure some articles for Rohrbaugh to take with him to Carlisle.

"The only way you can square yourself with the court is to make of yourself the best possible soldier," Judge W. C. Sheely told the youth. Miller told the court "devilishness" had made him break into the store. Chief of Police Glenn Guise told Judge Sheely that Miller was one of a group of boys which applied a coat of paint to a parked machine in McSherrystown one night recently.

TWO WHO HEARD LINCOLN ATTEND EXERCISES; DR. HOOVER SPEAKS

While two gray-haired men who heard Lincoln 80 years ago stood by, the anniversary of the delivery of the Gettysburg Address at the National cemetery dedication on November 19, 1863, was marked Saturday afternoon at special exercises by the National monument there.

Standing by the bronze tablet bearing Lincoln's immortal words, Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, member of the Gettysburg Theological seminary faculty, declared in the anniversary address: "To bring the speech out of this cold metal and into living souls today is the great mission of this eightieth anniversary, and may God help us so to do."

Edward Trostle, 84, and William C. Storick, 87, who heard Lincoln and shook hands with him at the dedicatory exercises in 1863, were special guests at Saturday's exercises.

Lincoln's Sources of Power
Early in the exercises, P. J. Kammerer, Lincoln impersonator from Newville, wearing a long-tailed black frock coat, laid aside a tall black hat to stand bareheaded as he repeated the famous address. Harry G. Deatrick, a past commander of the local Sons of Veterans camp, placed a floral wreath on the grave of an unknown soldier.

In his address Doctor Hoover traced the source of Lincoln's power to "his consciousness of Almighty God, his service to humanity performed as a labor of love, his faith in the ultimate triumph of the right as God gave him to see the right and to his life of hard labor."

"Cosmopolitan Lincoln"
Tracing significantly Lincoln's ancestry and background, the speaker asserted: "Lincoln's family was one of adventure, ever pioneering into the unconquered, the unknown and the unwon—never moving away from service to mankind but toward serving in the more difficult ways of life."

"Every day and every year adds to his stature. If this place gave birth to such a speech, we somehow should be greater here, more cosmopolitan, more willing to sacrifice than we are."

"Lincoln was cosmopolitan for his family had left the influence of many sections of the country. He was cosmopolitan in religion. . . . He was not connected with any one church, yet was in touch and in sympathy with each. . . . Vocationally he was cosmopolitan and in his wide contacts with people."

Live For Imperishables

Finishing then with his references to the "man behind the speech," Doctor Hoover addressed his closing remarks to "the people in front of the speech."

"Are we living the implications and dedications of this great address?" he asked. "Lincoln lived for the things that cannot die and if our nation is to endure we as human beings must engage our time and energies in things that are lasting. We must put into our living, our thinking, our feeling and our loves the things that do not perish. To bring these words out of this cold metal and into living souls is the great mission of this eightieth anniversary and may God help us so to do."

The Rev. Howard Schley Fox, member of the Sons of Veterans camp and pastor of Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church, presided over the exercises as chairman of the committee on arrangements. The invocation was given by the Rev. Dr. Dwight F. Putman, Christ Lutheran pastor. Lincoln's address by Mr. Kammerer and the placing of the wreath by Mr. Deatrick followed. The exercises were closed with the benediction by Doctor Putman.

ANNUAL APPEAL IS MADE BY T.B. UNIT IN COUNTY

Nearly 5,000 letters containing the 37th annual appeal of the Adams County Tuberculosis Association together with sheets of Christmas seals were mailed Tuesday to the homes of county residents.

The letter sent by L. C. Keefauver, president of the society, with the sheets of stamp points out that "last year your response in buying Christmas seals was so good that your association was able to conduct a tuberculin test in all of the high schools in the county. All expense, including the x-ray of reactors, was paid by the association."

This year the association plans to continue the same service to all high schools in the county for all pupils not previously tested. Mr. Keefauver added in his letter urging that "your response be generous so that this program can be carried on year after year."

Expect Heavier Needs

The Tuberculosis society also points out that "the ravages of war will also make demands on the funds of our association. Men returning from the battle lines will need help. In proportion to your response we can continue to carry on and even increase our service."

The design on the seal this year, that of a small girl looking out a window at Santa Claus approaching from the sky, will be used also in England, Canada, Mexico, Brazil and other countries.

W. A. Keeney is treasurer of the association; R. Z. Oyler, first vice president; Miss Dorothy Warner, second vice president; Miss Margaret McMillan, secretary and Miss Helen Spangler, executive secretary.

Just A Reminder

For the benefit of those fellows in the service who have not been informed of the Army and Post Office ruling we are not permitted to send The Gettysburg Times to you, with our compliments, after you leave this country . . . unless, someone, other than ourselves, orders and pays for it in advance.

It sounds like a strange ruling but it happens to be just that.

We cannot send our paper to you FREE after you leave this country.

If your parents, wife, brother, sister, sweetheart or a friend orders it and pays the subscription price in advance, or if you do so, then we are permitted to mail it to you.

We felt that this information should be conveyed again to you in order that you have time to make arrangements to have the paper sent to you if and when you are sent to overseas duty.

Many of the boys in Africa, Sicily, England, Hawaii and other foreign bases are receiving The Times. Some ordered the paper before they left while others are receiving it with the compliments of their parents or a friend.

So, if you want to continue to receive The Times after you leave this country we'd suggest that you make arrangements now.

We really are sorry we cannot do it ourselves but the Army and the Post Office department just won't let us.

Good luck,

Paul L. Roy.

Harrisburg Catholic high school rules as the mythical football champion of the Harrisburg diocese as a result of defeating Delone high in a grueling struggle Sunday afternoon at McSherrystown 6-0 before a crowd of approximately 1,500 fans.

The Squires and Harrisburg each had victories over York and Lancaster Catholic high schools, other diocesan teams and Sunday's game put the Capitol city lads on top of the pile.

The only touchdown of the afternoon came early in the second period when D. Filippelli, who was the outstanding backfield man on the field, heaved a 33-yard pass into the arms of Reagan in the end zone for a touchdown. Filippelli's attempted placement for the extra point was

Squires Stop Threat

Harrisburg threatened in the first period but the Squires proved equal to the occasion and took the ball on the 11-yard stripe after their opponents had reached the 3-yard line on a second down.

The game opened with Folmer returning the kickoff to his 35. Two plays later Folmer made a first down on the 48 but on the next play J. Filippelli pounced on a Delone fumble on the Delone 45. D. Filippelli went off tackle for 13 yards and then pass to D. Filippelli was good for another first down on the 19. D. Filippelli and Stefanie made a first down on the 7. D. Filippelli cracked over guard for five yards but on the next play Folmer broke through to throw the ball carrier on 8. A line plunge failed and a grounded pass gave Delone the ball on the 11.

Harrisburg kept the ball deep in Delone territory through its punts and it was early in the second quarter when the visitors took the ball on the Squires' 40 through a kick and D. Filippelli passed to Reagan for the score.

Play the remainder of the first half was confined mostly to midfield.

Delone Threatens

Late in the third period Delone secured possession of the ball on the Harrisburg 30 through an exchange of punts. Folmer battered his way through on three plays to put the ball on the 18 just after the final period opened. On the next play Delone fumbled and Harrisburg recovered on the 15. The visitors quickly took the ball out of their own territory on a 12-yard jaunt by D. Filippelli and a pass, D. Filippelli to Reagan, which put the ball in mid-field.

Coach Drach's lads filled the air with passes in a vain effort to score in the late minutes. Two passes, W. Noel to O. Keeler, produced two straight first downs to put the ball on the Harrisburg 38 but the Squires were soon forced to kick. After Harrisburg brought the ball back to its own 32, Delone secured possession on its 22 through a pun. A pass put the ball on the 37 where the game ended.

Visitors Held Edge

Harrisburg made 10 first downs to five for the Squires. The visitors connected on four of six passes while Delone made good on five of 17.

The defeat gave the Drachamen a record of five wins against as many defeats for the season.

Particularly outstanding for Delone were Folmer, whose line plumping was superb, and Rider, who time and again shifted through to throw Harrisburg runners for losses. D. Filippelli was easily the star for the victors.

ALLEN TOWN IS BIG 15 CHAMP

INJURED BAUGH STEALS HONORS AS 'SKINS WIN

By SID FEDER

Washington, Nov. 22 (AP)—There are 60 minutes in the regulation football game, unless the rules have been changed lately, but around this village today they'll tell you that when old number 33 shows up school may be out any time.

Which is one way of saying that whenever Samuel Adrian Baugh, of the Texas and football throwing Baugh, arrives on the scene, any game can be broken up in just about the length of time it takes him to say "Here we go again, boys."

That, for instance, is exactly how it was yesterday when Samuel Adrian walked out on the Griffith Stadium gridiron, and in just three plays drum-majorized the Washington Redskins to a 21 to 7 win over the baffled Chicago Bears, who were a one to two betting choice in this preview of the National Professional League championship.

And Samuel Adrian, who is also known around and about as Slingin' Sam the pitchin' man, did it practically on one left too. For last Tuesday, in a harmless game of touch football, his left knee was banged so badly he couldn't break out of a lame trot yesterday.

The result was his customary place in the starting lineup was ably occupied by Georgeous George Cafego, the one-time terrific Tennesseean, who had shown so little previous class in the game's big league that the down-trodden Brooklyn Dodgers sold him to the Redskins two weeks ago for a mere hundred dollars.

Yet between them, Limpin' Sammy and Georgeous George, ably backed up by a rip-snortin' set of linemen, won the game, handing the Bears their first regular-season league defeat in 24 games over a two-year period.

But without taking a thing away from Georgeous George, the Redskins fared well or Dutch Bergman, who is doing a fancy job of coaching the Washingtons in his first season, it was Samuel Adrian, as usual, who made the difference. Cafego spear-headed a first period drive to the Bear 20. Then Samuel Adrian limped out.

Everybody expected him to pass but he put new paint job on the Statue of Liberty play, handed the ball to the Minnesota handyman, Wilbur Moore, and the Redskins had a touchdown. He came out immediately afterwards, but in the third period, after the Washingtons waded 42 yards to the Bear 19, out he limped again. This time he was expected to pass again so he obliged. On the second play, he flipped a long one to Arvil Andy Farkas in the coffin corner, and the game, set and match was on ice, so back he went to the bench again.

Georgia-Ga Tech—Eddie Prokop to lead the Engineers right into the Sugar Bowl. Georgia Tech.

Notre Dame-Great Lakes—Can't see the sailors stopping the Irish.

Iowa Pre-Flight-Minnesota—Too bad for the Gophers.

Del Monte Pre-Flight-California

Southern California-UCLA—Southern California to repeat its early season triumph.

And now for one last trip over the chalk lines: Thursday—Utah-Emory. Franklin and Marshall over Bucknell; Oklahoma Aggies over Denver; VMI over Maryland; Wake Forest over South Carolina; Saturday—Rutgers over Brooklyn Camp Lejeune over Jacksonville Naval ATTC; North Carolina over Virginia; Oklahoma over Nebraska; Lafayette over Lehigh; Southwest Texas over Rice and Texas Christian over Southern Methodist.

MONTGOMERY IS DEFEATED BY BEAU JACK

By TED MEIER

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—Beau Jack was back on top of the lightweight heap today and he gave full credit to his trainer, Larry Amadee.

Following Amadee's instructions to the letter, Beau, 3 to 1 underdog in the betting, regained the 135-pound title by outpointing champion Bob Montgomery in a furious 15-rounder at Madison Square Garden last night.

Under Amadee's tutelage Jack amazed the crowd of 17,866, that contributed to a gross gate of $96,873.04, by fighting differently than he did when he lost his title to Bob Montgomery last May or when he was upset by Bob Ruffin in a 10-rounder only six weeks ago.

"I did just what Larry told me," the former Augusta, Ga., shoeshine boy explained in his dressing room as he was congratulated by a swarm of well-wishers, including Humphrey Bogart, screen star.

At Amadee's direction he stuck close to Montgomery. He mixed willingly at close quarters, slugged it out with both fists when the referee parted them from a clinch and coasted when Amadee gave the word.

The Beau needed Amadee's sage advice because Montgomery, always a slow starter, put on a whirlwind finish in the last five rounds that all but ended the scrap with Jack being counted out.

In the last two rounds, especially, Montgomery seemed to be on the verge of a knockout triumph, but somehow the Beau stood up to cart off a unanimous decision. The two judges each gave him 10 rounds while the referee gave him seven rounds, Montgomery six and called two even. The way we saw it Jack won eight, Montgomery six with one even.

Perhaps the punch that swung the fight to Jack came in the ninth round. As they came out of a clinch Jack smashed a vicious uppercut on Montgomery's mouth.

Had this uppercut not landed the Philadelphia Bobcat might have started his rally sooner. At any rate it won Jack both the ninth and tenth rounds and kept Montgomery on the defensive until he hurt the Beau with a right just before the bell ending the tenth stanza.

The Athletics, not to be left behind in the flurry of baseball news, also announced the loss of a pitcher, Lou Ciola, right-hander who won one and lost three last year, called by the Navy.

ORITZ RETAINS BANTAM CROWN

Los Angeles, Nov. 24 (AP)—California's Aztec assassin, Manuel Ortiz, still wears his bantamweight crown with the ease and consummate grace of a true champion.

Ortiz last night belted the previously undefeated Detroit, south paw Benny Goldberg, from one corner of the ring to another and gained a unanimous verdict in 15 rounds. It was the eighth defense of the title this year by the slugging Ortiz, most active champion in the game.

Ortiz weighed 117½, a half pound under the limit, and Goldberg weighed 116½.

SPORT SHORTS

College Station, Tex., Nov. 22 (AP)

—Hoary tradition—that champions never repeat in the Southwest conference—will favor Texas A & M. in its grid clash with Texas Thursday.

In 1940 Texas knocked the Aggies out of a second straight title—and the Rose Bowl—but this year it's the Longhorns who need one more victory to retain their title.

And if the Aggies beat Texas, they will take the championship themselves—something no one dreamed of at the beginning of the season.

Los Angeles, Nov. 22 (AP)

—Unbeaten Benny Goldberg of Detroit has never boxed 15 rounds, and his manager says he won't have to tomorrow night in the world's bantamweight title match with Champion Manuel Ortiz.

"He'll stop Ortiz inside of 10," says Pete Reilly, the challenger's pilot.

Tommy Farmer, who manages the favored El Centro, Calif., titleholder, offered this comment:

"Manuel wants to retire undefeated—and he can't do that if he loses to Goldberg, can he?"

Waukegan, Ill., Nov. 22 (AP)

—Where was Elmer? Out hunting pheasants.

Elmer Layden, Commissioner of the National Football League, one of Notre Dame's famous four horsemen and former Irish football coach, didn't see the Iowa Seahawk game at South Bend, Saturday. It was the last day for pheasant hunting, so he decided, probably after much meditation, to pass up the game.

But he solved the problem nicely by packing a portable radio on his back. While listening to Notre Dame win, he bagged the limit of two birds.

Chicago, Nov. 24 (AP)

—Sammy Baugh, the Redskins' only 11 completions behind Sid Luckman and has three more games in which to dissolve this deficit to stake a claim for the National Football League 1943 passing champion.

Caracas, Venezuela, Nov. 24 (AP)—Arturo Godoy, Chilean heavyweight fighter, may box again in the United States. His manager, Luis Porto, said today James Johnson, of New York, had offered to arrange fights in New York, Chicago and Philadelphia. Al Weil, former manager of Godoy, also has made offers, Porto said.

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Guest

TO A FUTURE HISTORY STUDENT

Little fellow, three years old,
In the days to be
By your teachers you'll be told
This year's history.

In the school room, where you'll sit,

Over books to pore.

You will learn what men have writ

Of the freedoms four.

They will tell you where and when

Skies and oceans wide,

And in the foxholes, freedom's men

Fought and bled and died.

Little fellow, when you read

History through and through,

Know they fought 'gainst tyrant greed

Just for boys like you.

SOLDIER PICTURES HOME SCENE

Tomorrow, whereso'er he'll be, on land or on the rolling sea,

Or in the sky,

"Thanksgiving Day at home!" he'll say, "with turkey in the good old way."

And pumpkin pie!

"Let all be thankful!" Ma will say.

"And how our heads in prayer this day."

About the board,

And as we should, for health and food and every good,

Come, thank the Lord!"

"And then for you and me and all who here are answering freedom's call

She'll ask His aid:

"Be with them, Father," she will plead, "and grant to them the strength they'll need Till peace is made!"

BLACKOUT FASHIONS

London (AP)—Feminine ingenuity at last has hit on a way to overcome the inconveniences of clothing rationing.

A London drapery shop director disclosed that many women have been buying ration-free material intended for blackout curtains and are making them into coat linings, slips and underwear.

What's more, a board of trade official said, it seems that nothing can be done about it.

The dog now is unemployed.

PRIDE OF SERVICE

Just take it from the sailor: it's the Navy that is tough.

They'll hand it to the Axis, till the Axis cries enough!

The Navy has tradition, from the shoulders trimmed with gold

To the youngest tar among them, doing service in the hold!

Stop the first one that you come to who has leave ashore to be

And that sailor boy will tell you: wars are won upon the sea!

But the lad who packs a rifle has a different song to sing.

He will tell you that the Army in the war is everything.

It's the soldier in the foxhole, and the soldier standing guard,

And the boys in all the branches who are trained to fighting hard!

It's the lads who fight in khaki and get stripes upon their sleeves.

It's the Army that will win it! every one of them believes!

So it is throughout the service.

Ask the boys who wear the wings

And they'll tell you it's the Air Corps that is really doing things.

But some chap adorned with ribbons who has learned what battle means

Will insist on giving credit to the first on hand" Marines.

And I think that's how it should be.

I would want that boy of mine

To believe his branch of service is the finest of the line.

William McDonnell, 18, gunner's mate in the armed guard division of the Navy, has returned to duty after spending a two-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen McDonnell, Hunterstown road. Young McDonnell saw action at Sicily and elsewhere in the European war theatre.

Flashes Of Life

MAGICIAN

Williamsport, Pa. (AP)—Earl Bothford was hunting rabbits and wasn't having much luck—so he poked into a large hole.

No rabbits scampered out but a bear and four cubs waddled forth. Bothford now is showing friends a 200-pound bear which he killed with his shotgun.

SICKLY SWAG

Newport Beach, Calif. (AP)—Thieves cooked and ate several lobsters in the California Marine Laboratory, then stole 18 more.

Police today issued a warning to the culprits: "See a doctor—quick."

Experimenters had inoculated the lobsters with pneumonia germs.

HERE'S ELMER!

San Francisco. (AP)—A flustered desk clerk stalled for time when Elmer Davis, OWI chief, checked in at a San Francisco hotel for a room he had reserved.

While the director loled in the lobby, the clerk moved Elmer J. Davis of Los Angeles out of the room mistakenly assigned him earlier in the day.

CONSERVATION

Kansas City, Kas. (AP)—Instead of burning a ton of old election ballots as required by an ancient Kansas statute, City Clerk Howard Payne and Attorney General A. B. Mitchell, searched until they found a legal loophole.

So the ballots will be turned in with other waste paper for salvage.

SLEEP INSURANCE

Los Angeles. (AP)—Ora D. Rock was fined $50 for killing a neighbor's rooster.

"Your honor," he told the court, "it was worth it."

That rooster would sound off at all hours of the night, and I just couldn't stand it any longer."

CASH CARDS

Moberly, Mo. (AP)—The victory chorus of Moberly has sung until $3,000 has rolled in.

It will send a Christmas gift to every one of the 2,000 Randolph county residents in the armed services.

SHIRT TALE

Auburn, Neb. (AP)—Knocked down and mauled by two large hogs, 7-year-old Wayne Beatty didn't cry, then or later when his mother administered first aid.

But when his shirt was removed and Wayne saw it was ripped to rags he began to wail.

And that was my brand new shirt," he sobbed.

SILENT OBSERVER

Springfield, Ill. (AP)—A watch dog at Foster and Don's filling station watched burglars load a 500-pound safe onto a truck and drive away with it. He made no audible remonstrances.

The dog now is unemployed.

BLACKOUT FASHIONS

London (AP)—Feminine ingenuity at last has hit on a way to overcome the inconveniences of clothing rationing.

DUTY

With U. S. Forces, Bougainville (AP)—Lieut. Col. O. C. Ledbetter of Burlingame, California, says that advancing Marine forces on Bougainville are being instructed.

Every Jap has been told that it is his duty to die for the Emperor.

It is your duty to see that he does."

SNAPSHOT

Salt Lake City (AP)—While a man was having his picture taken in the rear room of the Capitol Photo studio, his companion remained out front.

He called police—then hurried to develop the film.

It was the first local case, officers said, in which a culprit had "mugged" himself.

ALL COMES OUT

Fort Ord, Calif. (AP)—Pfc. Andrew Sorentino, member of an ordnance unit, carried on a fruitless search for his missing partial denture plate for a week.

Then it came back, uncleaned, in a neat package, with this notation from the laundry:

"Partial plate rejected."

GILDED LILY

Los Angeles—Police said Louis Botello, 52, booked on suspicion of illegally wearing a uniform, wore these insignia on his arm tunic:

Purple heart, Pacific combat theater, Asiatic service with three stars, defense bar with two stars, World War I ribbon with five stars, distinguished service cross, Croix De Guerre with palms, Belgian, Cuban and Nicaraguan campaign ribbons, amphibious forces, Guadalcanal and Alaska action, sergeant's stripes, and 26 years' service stripes.

William McDonnell, 18, gunner's mate in the armed guard division of the Navy, has returned to duty after spending a two-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen McDonnell, Hunterstown road. Young McDonnell saw action at Sicily and elsewhere in the European war theatre.

NEW GROCERY RETAIL PRICES HAVE BEEN SET

New grocery community retail ceilings, which establish dollars and cents prices for 461 food commodities in thirty-three food groups are announced by the Harrisburg District Office of Price Administration.

The new price schedule becomes effective Monday, November 29, in this market area which includes Adams, Franklin, Lancaster and York counties.

About 90 per cent of all food commodities are now under fixed price ceilings; however, the new price ceilings include only thirty-three commodities, of which there are eight product groups listed for the first time. These are—tea, cocoa, dehydrated soups, soda crackers, graham crackers, gelatin and pudding mixes, dried fruits and baked beans.

The new list contains 196 new items and 66 changed price items in Group No. 1 and No. 2 independent stores doing up to $250,000 gross business annually and a total of 366 items in Group No. 3 and No. 4 (retail chain stores) of which 164 are published for the first time and 69 are changed prices. Most of the price changes reflect a one-cent change. One of the important changes is in the price of butter, which has dropped one cent per pound, and for one pound quarters in cartons for the best grade, 93 score butter, the maximum ceiling price the consumer should pay from November 29th on is 51c instead of the 52c ceiling price in effect up to this time.

New costs and a few new brands not listed in previous schedules are shown for the 1943 pack of canned tomatoes, peas, green beans, corn, tomato juice and pineapple. Canned fruit ceiling prices for the 1943 pack items will be established during December and announced by the Office of Price Administration about December 15.

New prices for peanut butter will be announced in December and will show a reduction of six to seven cents per pound at retail due to the federal government subsidy of 4½¢ per pound at the processor's level.

Merchants are being supplied by price panels of war price and rationing boards with printed posters showing all these price items. If there are any questions about other ceiling prices for foods not shown in the list, proper ceiling prices of these foods may be obtained from local price panels.

Thanksgiving Day—1943

By REV. ROBERT M. HUNT
Pastor Gettysburg Presbyterian Church

On this Thanksgiving Day let us be grateful of heart. We in America have more for which to be thankful in 1943 than the Pilgrims had in 1621. Our harvest is plenty for all if we share, and plenty more to send across the seas to those who know the real pangs of hunger. Religious persecution that drove the Pilgrims to these shores is rampant again in Europe but we may still worship God in freedom. Our boys are in the best organized, best equipped, best cared for army the world has ever known. Miraculous medical care has saved thousands of lives that could not have been saved in the last war. Though every inch of ground must be wrested from the enemy at a cost no human heart dares to compute, yet the war is going well with us. The day of a greater Thanksgiving is no longer out of sight.

Our joy on Thanksgiving Day—1943 should be no less than that of the Pilgrims who lifted grateful hearts unto God. An ancient writer counsels: "When thou hast eaten, and art full, then beware lest thou forget the Lord thy God." (Deut. 6:11, 12) We will not forget, we will heed the glad call of the Psalmist.
